Facing Poetry Frauke Berndt,2020-10-12 Alexander Gottlieb Baumgarten 1714 1762 is known in intellectual history for having established the discourse of philosophical aesthetics with his Meditationes

philosophicae de nonnullis ad poema pertinentibus Reflections on Poetry and Aesthetica Aesthetics which consists of two books and is considered Baumgarten's most important work But this book amends that history It shows that Baumgarten's aesthetics is a science of literature that demonstrates the value of literature to philosophy Baumgarten did not intend to pursue such a task but in working on his philosophical texts and lectures he ends up analyzing synthesizing and contextualizing literature He thereby treats it not as belles lettres or as a moral institution but rather as an epistemic object His aesthetics is thus the first modern literary theory and his articulation of this theory would never again be matched in its complexity and systematicity Baumgarten's theory of literature has never been discovered It waits latently to take its place in intellectual history

Devotional Experience and Erotic Knowledge in the Literary Culture of the English Reformation Rhema Hokama, 2023-02-20 This study explores the way Calvinist experientialism provided both a theology and an epistemology in the poetry of five early modern English poets William Shakespeare Robert Herrick John Donne Fulke Greville and John Milton In both official church ecclesiology and informal devotional practice the Reformation introduced the idea that an individual's experience of devotion did not only entail feeling but also thought For early modern English people bodily experience offered a means of corroborating and verifying devotional truth making the invisible visible and knowable This volume maintains that these religious developments gave early modern thinkers and poets a new epistemological framework for imagining and interpreting devotional intention and access These Reformed models for devotion not only shaped how people experienced their encounters with God the changing religious landscape of post Reformation England also held profound implications for how English poets described sexual longing and access to earthly beloveds in the literary production of the period In placing the works of English poets in conversation with devotional writers such as William Perkins Samuel Hieron Joseph Hall and William Gouge this book demonstrates how the English Calvinist tradition attributed epistemological potential to a wide range of ordinary experience including sexual experience

Trust in Texts Susan Miller, 2008 Trust in Texts A Different History of Rhetoric challenges the accepted idea of a singular rhetorical tradition poorly maintained from the Athenian Golden Age until the present Author Susan Miller argues that oratorical rhetoric is but one among many codes that guide the production of texts and proposes that emotion and trust are central to the motives and effects of rhetoric This groundbreaking volume makes a case for historical rhetoric as disbursed formal and informal lessons in persuasion that are codified as crafts that mediate between what is known and unknown in particular rhetorical situations Traditional unified histories of rhetoric ignore the extensive historical interactions among discourses including medicine drama lyric poetry philosophy oratory and literary fiction that have operated from antiquity across cultures that are historically and geographically joined Drawing not just on traditional rhetorical works but also on texts from philosophy and literature Miller expands the body of works to be considered in the study of rhetoric As the first book length study that calls into question the centrality of logos to rhetoric Trust in Texts will change the way the history of rhetoric is viewed and taught

Schneider,2019-12-13 Most scholars believe that Mark wrote his Gospel to the Romans True but in addition to presenting the Gospel to the Romans Mark actually contextualized his Gospel by challenging the leading propaganda of his day Virgil s Aeneid The Roman poet Virgil wrote his masterpiece epic poem the Aeneid to promote the myth that Caesar Augustus was the son of god The Aeneid went viral almost immediately upon publication in 19 BC becoming Rome s premier piece of propaganda that promoted Augustus as the emperor who would bring peace to the world Within the first century the Aeneid reached from Masada to northern Britain and became a foundational piece of Roman education Mark s mother Mary and his uncle Joseph Barnabas raised him in wealth and educated him in the four languages of Hebrew Aramaic Greek and Latin They drew him to Jesus and Barnabas took Mark on the first missionary journey Mark spent time with Peter in Rome where Mark wrote his Gospel in Greek Mark most certainly had direct access to the most influential piece of Latin literature the Aeneid and he wrote his masterpiece Gospel comparing Augustus with Jesus the true Son of God Scylla Marianne Govers Hopman,2013-01-03 What s in a name Using the example of a famous monster from Greek myth this book challenges the dominant view that a mythical symbol denotes a single clear cut figure and proposes instead to define the name Scylla as a combination of three concepts sea dog and woman whose articulation changes over time While archaic and classical Greek versions usually emphasize the metaphorical coherence of Scylla s components the name is increasingly treated as a well defined but also paradoxical construct from the late fourth century BCE onward Proceeding through detailed analyses of Greek and Roman texts and images Professor Hopman shows how the same name can variously express anxieties about the sea dogs aggressive women and shy maidens thus offering an empirical response to the semiotic puzzle raised by non referential proper names Island of Bones Joy Castro,2012-09-01 What is identity when you re a girl adopted as an infant by a Cuban American family of Jehovah s Witnesses The answer isn t easy You won t find it in books And you certainly won t find it in the neighborhood This is just the beginning of Joy Castro s unmoored life of searching and striving that she s turned to account with literary alchemy in Island of Bones In personal essays that plumb the depths of not belonging Castro takes the all too raw materials of her adolescence and young adulthood and views them through the prism of time The result is an exquisitely rendered richly detailed perspective on a uniquely troubled young life that reflects on the larger questions each of us faces in a world where diversity and singularity are forever at odds In the experiences of her past hunger and abuse flight as a fourteen year old runaway single motherhood the revelations of her true ethnic identity the suicide of her father Castro finds the jagged smashed place of edges and fragments that she pieces together to create an island all her own Hers is a complicated but very real depiction

Hilliard, 2010 This challenging book brings to light a mythic dimension of seventeen important eighteenth and early nineteenth century narratives that revolve around the persecution of one or more important female characters and offers original reading of novels by Richardson Fielding Burney Radcliffe Godwin Austen Scott and others The myth in question which Raymond Hilliard calls the myth of persecution and reparation serves as a major vehicle for the early novel's preoccupation with the mother a mythic figure distinct from the historical mother or from the mother as she is represented in eighteenth and early nineteenth century maternal ideology Hilliard argues that the myth of persecution and reparation derives from the topos of female sacrifice in the romance tradition and shows that this topos is central to several kinds of novels realist Gothic Jacobin feminist and historical Hilliard contends that the narrative of persecution and reparation anticipates the twentieth century maternal myth associated with the work of Melanie Klein and other relational model psychoanalytic theorists and he thus also examines the psychosexual significance of the mother Hilliard explores the relation of psychosexual themes to social representations and delineates a new theory of plot both tragic and comic plots in the early novel Book Jacket Lost Letters of Medieval Life Martha Carlin, David Crouch, 2013-03-22 Drawn from two medieval collections of form letters for all manner of business and personal affairs Lost Letters of Medieval Life depicts early thirteenth century England through the everyday correspondence of people of all classes from peasants and shopkeepers to bishops and earls Violence, Trauma, and Virtus in Shakespeare's Roman Poems and Plays L. Starks-Estes, 2014-07-08 Employing psychoanalysis trauma theory and materialist perspectives this book examines Shakespeare's appropriations of Ovid's poetry in his Roman poems and plays It argues that Shakespeare uses Ovid to explore violence trauma and virtus the traumatic effects of aggression sadomasochism and the shifting notions of selfhood and masculinity Old Names, New

Peoples: Listing Ethnonyms in Late Antiquity Salvatore Liccario, 2023-10-30 No people is nameless and lists of words are as old as writing systems And yet both subjects can appear unpromising to historians This volume shows the contrary by examining the various meanings and functions of ethnonyms in Late Antiquity added to catalogues of provinces they reflect the political messages and the regulating power of the imperial bureaucracy included in schoolbooks they mirror educational practices and reveal the geographical and ethnic landscapes taught at school placed on a map they help make sense of the world in times of transition
