Poetic Frame:

Poetic Epistemologies Megan Simpson, 2000-02-03 Through detailed readings and interviews this book provides a valuable introduction to feminist language poets and to some of the most compelling issues in contemporary poetry

In the Frame Jane Hedley, Nick Halpern, Willard Spiegelman, 2009 The subject of In the Frame is poetic ekphrasis poems whose starting point or source of inspiration is a work of visual art The authors of these sixteen essays several of whom are poets as well as critics have a twofold purpose calling attention to the contribution women poets have made to this important genre of poetic writing and re thinking ekphrastic poetry's motives and purposes From Marianne Moore and Elizabeth Bishop to Mary Jo Salter C D Wright and Susan Wheeler many of our best women poets have done important work in this genre and when they describe confront or speak for an image that is itself wordless their motives are not only formal but aesthetic Their poems also raise important questions from a perspective that is often but not always gender inflected about how art is made and displayed experienced and valued celebrated and commodified Jane Hedley is K Laurence Stapleton Professor of English at Bryn Mawr College Willard Spiegelman is the Hughes Professor of English at Southern Methodist University and editor in chief of the Southwest Review Nick Halpern is an associate professor in the English Department at North Carolina State University

Chinese Narrative Poetry Dore Jesse Levy, 1988 Chinese Narrative Poetry brings a new perspective to some of China's best loved and most influential poems including Ts'ai Yen's Poem of Affliction Po Chu-yi's Song of Everlasting Sorrow and Wei Chuang's recently discovered Song of the Lady of Ch'in Composed in the shih form during the Late Han Six Dynasties and T'ang periods these poems stand out as masterworks of narrative art Yet paradoxically their narrative qualities have been little recognized or explored in either traditional Chinese or modern Western scholarship The reason for this neglect is that Western literary traditions acknowledge their origins in epic poetry and thus take narrative for granted but the Chinese tradition is fundamentally based on lyric and does not admit of a separate category for narrative poetry Drawing on both classical Chinese critical works and the most recent Western contributions to the theory of narrative Levy shows how narrative elements developed out of the lyrical conventions of shih In doing so she accomplishes a double purpose guiding the modern reader to an understanding of the nature of narrative in Chinese poetry and shedding light on the ways in which Chinese poets adapted the devices of lyric to the needs of a completely different expressive mode Students of Chinese literature will welcome this pathbreaking study but Chinese Narrative Poetry will interest other scholars as well because it addresses questions of crucial importance for literary theory and comparative literature particularly the central issue of the applicability of Western critical concepts to non Western literature and culture
