Poets Writers In Folsom Prison:

Poets & Writers in Folsom Prison, 1974 Poetry and Bondage Andrea Brady, 2021-10-21 Poetry and Bondage is a groundbreaking and comprehensive study of the history of poetic constraint For millennia poets have compared verse to bondage chains fetters cells or slavery Tracing this metaphor from Ovid through the present Andrea Brady reveals the contributions to poetics of people who are actually in bondage How the book asks does our understanding of the lyric and the political freedoms and forms of human being it is supposed to epitomise change if we listen to the voices of enslaved and imprisoned poets Bringing canonical and contemporary poets into dialogue from Thomas Wyatt to Rob Halpern Emily Dickinson to M NourbeSe Philip and Phillis Wheatley to Lisa Robertson the book also examines poetry that emerged from the plantation and the prison This book is a major intervention in lyric studies and literary criticism interrogating the whiteness of those disciplines and exploring the possibilities for committed poetry today Ten Years That Shook the City Chris Carlsson, Lisa Ruth Elliott, 2011-06 The alliances programs and goals of a historic decade that continues to shape SF and the world Coda: Poets & Writers Newsletter, 1978 Vols for present up dated and additional information to supplement A Directory of American poets Prison Writing and the Literary World Michelle Kelly, Claire Westall, 2020-10-27 Prison Writing and the Literary World tackles international prison writing and writing about imprisonment in relation to questions of literary representation and formal aesthetics the value or values of literature textual censorship and circulation institutional networks and literary critical methodologies It offers scholarly essays exploring prison writing in relation to wartime internment political imprisonment resistance and independence creation regimes of terror and personal narratives of development and awakening that grapple with race class and gender Cutting across geospatial divides while drawing on nation and region specific expertise it asks readers to connect the questions examples and challenges arising from prison writing and writing about imprisonment within the UK and the USA but also across continental Europe Stalinist Russia the Americas Africa and the Middle East It also includes critical reflection pieces from authors editors educators and theatre practitioners with experience of the fraught testing and potentially inspiring links between prison and the literary world

Carceral Spaces Nick Gill, 2016-04-15 This book draws together the work of a new community of scholars with a growing interest in carceral geography the geographical study of practices of imprisonment and detention It combines work by geographers on mainstream penal establishments where people are incarcerated by the prevailing legal system with geographers recent work on migrant detention centres where irregular migrants and refused asylum seekers are detained ostensibly pending decisions on admittance or repatriation Working in these contexts the book s contributors investigate the geographical location and spatialities of institutions the nature of spaces of incarceration and detention and experiences inside them governmentality and prisoner agency cultural geographies of penal spaces and mobility in the carceral context In dialogue with emergent and topical agendas in geography around mobility space and agency and in relation to international policy challenges such as the dis functionality of imprisonment and the search for alternatives to detention this book presents a timely addition to emergent interdisciplinary scholarship that will prompt dialogue among those working in geography criminology and prison sociology

Teaching Literature and Writing in Prisons Sheila Smith McKoy, Patrick Elliot Alexander, 2023-10-13 As the work of Malcolm X Angela Y Davis and others has made clear education in prison has enabled people to rethink systems of oppression Courses in reading and writing help incarcerated students feel a sense of community examine the past and present and imagine a better future Yet incarcerated students often lack the resources materials information and opportunity to pursue their coursework and training is not always available for those who teach incarcerated students This volume will aid both new and experienced instructors by providing strategies for developing courses for creating supportive learning environments and for presenting and publishing incarcerated students scholarly and creative work It also suggests approaches to self care designed to help instructors sustain their work Essays incorporate the perspectives of both incarcerated and nonincarcerated teachers and students centering critical prison studies scholarship and abolitionist perspectives This volume contains discussion of Mumia Abu Jamal s Live from Death Row Marita Bonner s The Purple Flower Suzanne Collins s The Hunger Games Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and William Shakespeare s The Taming of the Shrew and Othello

A Socially Just Classroom: Transdisciplinary Approaches to Teaching Writing Across the Humanities Kristin Coffey, Vuslat Katsanis, 2022-08-16 This edited collection provides a range of transdisciplinary approaches to the teaching of writing across the Humanities through the lens of inclusion and equity in higher education In three parts From Disciplinary Practice to Transdisciplinary Application The Collective We Transparent Pedagogy in Praxis Power in Presence From Chalkboard to Pavement the chapters focus on teaching triumphs and challenges specific learning objectives and best practices theories and their applications and concrete examples of campus action within specific institutional or socio historical contexts In whole the book represents what a socially just classroom looks like from first year university writing classes to advanced graduate studies and the impact of learning beyond the university Building on the scholarship of equity in higher education the book forefronts transdisciplinary pedagogies with chapters representing language and literature creative writing cultural and ethnic studies women and gender studies and media studies While we understand social justice as a multifaceted and ever expanding effort we affirm the essential role of classroom instructors as the foundational actors in cultivating and sustaining inclusion and equity We also acknowledge the current challenges of teaching brought on by the COVID 19 pandemic which intensifies previously existing issues surrounding housing employment healthcare and the legal residency status of many students By fostering a conversation around writing pedagogy in a comparative and transdisciplinary context we encourage educators to translate the resources available in their fields in a collective effort to close the equity gaps At the same time we intend for this book to provide a context where younger faculty and diverse students can redefine the college classroom while empowering each other within their chosen institutions

The Book of Judith Spoon Jackson, Mark Foss, Sara Press, 2022-09-13 An homage to the life of poet writer and teaching artist Judith Tannenbaum b 1947 d 2019 and her impact on incarcerated and marginalized students The book presents different aspects of Judith through a collection of original poetry prose essay illustration and fiction from 33 contributors who knew her International Who's who in Poetry, 1982 By Heart Judith Tannenbaum, Spoon Jackson, 2010-04 A two person memoir that explores education prison possibility and which children our world nurtures and which it shuns At the book's core are two stories that speak up for human imagination spirit and the power of art A boy with no one to listen becomes a man in prison for life and discovers his mind can be free A woman enters prison to teach and becomes his first listener And so begins a twenty five year friendship between two gifted writers and poets The result is By Heart a book that will anger you give you hope and break your heart Gloria Steinem Judith Tannenbaum and Spoon Jackson met at San Quentin State Prison in 1985 For over two decades they have conferred corresponded and sometimes collaborated producing very different bodies of work resting on the same understanding that human beings have one foot in darkness the other in light In this beautifully crafted exploration part memoir part essay Tannenbaum and Jackson consider art education prison possibility and which children our world nurtures and which it shuns At the book's core are two stories that speak for human imagination spirit and expression Judith Tannenbaum is a nationally respected educator speaker and author Among her books are the memoir Disguised as a Poem My Years Teaching Poetry at San Quentin two books for teachers Teeth Wiggly as Earthquakes Writing Poetry in the Primary Grades and with Valerie Chow Bush Jump Write In Creative Writing Exercises for Diverse Communities Grades 6 12 and six poetry collections She currently serves as training coordinator with WritersCorps in San Francisco Born into a family of fifteen boys in Barstow California Spoon Jackson was sentenced to Life Without Possibility of Parole when he was twenty years old Spoon discovered himself as a writer at San Quentin played Pozzo in the prison's 1988 production of Waiting for Godot and has written published and received awards for plays poetry novels fairy tales short stories essays and memoir during the more than thirty years he has been behind bars His poems are collected in Longer Ago Incarceration Nation Stephen John Hartnett, 2003-06-05 Stephen Hartnett merges the evocative power of poetry with scholarly research to produce both a genre bending critique of the prison industrial complex and an innovative new method of qualitative research Based on ten years of teaching in writing about and protesting at prisons across America Hartnett weaves together the hopes of prisoners their families and friends with the stories of activist communities struggling against the death penalty the war on drugs and a culture that treats prisoners as commodities Full of materials from philosophers poets and historians rich in personal detail and written as a passionate and urgent call for justice Incarceration Nation shows the power of ethnographic poetry to give voice to the hopes and horrors of a generation confronted by the mass production of criminality La Pinta B. V. Olguín, 2010-01-15 In this groundbreaking study based on archival research about Chicana and Chicano prisoners known as Pintas and Pintos as well as fresh interpretations of works by renowned Pinta and Pinto authors and activists B V Olguín provides crucial insights into the central roles that incarceration and the incarcerated have played in the evolution of Chicana o history cultural paradigms and oppositional political praxis This is the first text on prisoners in general and Chicana o and Latina o prisoners in particular that provides a range of case studies from the nineteenth century to the present Olgu n places multiple approaches in dialogue through the pairing of representational figures in the history of Chicana o incarceration with specific themes and topics Case studies on the first nineteenth century Chicana prisoner in San Quentin State Prison Modesta Avila renowned late twentieth century Chicano poets Ra l Salinas Ricardo S nchez and Jimmy Santiago Baca lesser known Chicana pinta and author Judy Lucero and infamous Chicano drug baron and social bandit Fred G meez Carrasco are aligned with themes from popular culture such as prisoner tattoo art and handkerchief art Hollywood Chicana o gangxploitation and the prisoner film American Me and prisoner education projects Olgu n provides a refreshing critical interrogation of Chicana o subaltern agency which too often is celebrated as unambiguously resistant and oppositional As such this study challenges long held presumptions about Chicana o cultures of resistance and proposes important explorations of the complex and contradictory relationship between Chicana o agency and ideology

New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement Lisa Gail Collins, Margo Natalie Crawford, 2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s a cadre of poets playwrights visual artists musicians and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art This charged chapter in the history of African American culture which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well known figures such as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez Betye Saar Jeff Donaldson and Haki Madhubuti In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its critique
