Practice Of Theory Rhetoric Knowledge And Pedagogy In The Academy:

The Practice of Theory Michael F. Bernard-Donals, 1998-06-04 Though theory has become a common language in the humanities in recent years the relation between theoretical speculation and its practical application has yet to be fully addressed In The Practice of Theory Michael Bernard Donals examines the connection between theory and pedagogy at the level of practice He asks how such a practice works not only to change the way we read and speak with one another but also the conditions in which these activities become possible Bernard Donals argues that the most sophisticated practice linking pedagogy to theory is rhetoric but the version of this tradition in thinkers like Rorty and Fish is never broad enough The conception of rhetoric he proposes instead is linked to other human and natural sciences The practice of theory investigates the degree to which a materialistic rhetoric can reinvigorate the link between theory teaching and practice and offers a sustained reflection on the production of knowledge across a broad range of contemporary disciplines The Oxford

Handbook of Management Consulting Matthias Kipping, Timothy Clark, 2012-03-29 Management consultants of various kinds play an important role in the world of business and within other types of organization The Oxford Handbook on Management Consulting is a comprehensive overview of thinking and research on management consultancy with contributions from leading international scholars The first section provides an account of the historical developments in management consulting research and how current thinking has evolved from prior work The second section focuses on disciplinary and theoretical perspectives their diversities areas of synergy and parallel concerns The following sections examine consulting as a knowledge business consultants and management fashion and the relationship between management consultants and their clients The Handbook concludes with an assessment of areas of future research and debate By bringing together a wide range of research and thinking on management consulting across different disciplines sub disciplines and conceptual approaches the Handbook provides a comprehensive understanding of both current thinking and future directions for research Theory and the Novel Jeffrey Williams, 1998-12-03 Narrative features such as frames digressions or authorial intrusions have traditionally been viewed as distractions from or anomalies in the narrative proper In Theory and the Novel Jeffrey Williams exposes these elements as more than simple disruptions analysing them as registers of narrative reflexivity that is moments that represent and advertise the functioning of narrative itself Williams argues that narrative encodes and advertises its own functioning and modal form He takes a range of novels from the English canon Tristram Shandy Joseph Andrews The Turn of the Screw Wuthering Heights Lord Jim and Heart of Darkness are amongst the novels examined and shows how narrative technique is never beyond or outside plot He poses a series of theoretical questions such as about reflexivity imitation and fictionality to offer a striking and original contribution to readings of the English novel as well as to discussions of theory in general Critical Realism and Composition Theory Donald Judd, 2005-07-05 The field of composition theory has emerged as part of the intellectual turmoil and set of pedagogical debates which have beset higher education for the last four decades and is now revolutionizing the theory and praxis of higher education This volume examines three of the dominant pedagogical theories within composition theory expressivist cognitivist and social constructivist and builds its critique on the fact that much of modern composition theory has focused on epistemological concerns while neglecting the ontological foundations of that which is being discussed Critical Realism and Composition Theory offers an alternative approach to teaching composition This problem oriented alternative is designed to lead students beyond the abstract contemplative description of a problem to an expanded understanding that shows that concerns for justice cannot be addressed intellectually without at the same time confronting the practical constraints that limiting powers of social institutions play in both defining a problem and its social solution Ideology and Inscription Tom Cohen,1998-10

A critique of cultural studies that invokes Bakhtin Benjamin and de Man Bakhtin and the Human Sciences Michael Bell,Michael E Gardiner,1998-08-28 Bakhtin and the Human Sciences demonstrates the abundance of ideas Bakhtin s thought offers to the human sciences and reconsiders him as a social thinker not just a literary theorist The contributors hail from many disciplines and their essays implications extend into other fields in the human sciences The volume emphasizes Bakhtin s work on dialogue carnival ethics and everyday life as well as the relationship between Bakhtin s ideas and those of other important social theorists In a lively introduction Gardiner and Bell discuss Bakhtin s significance as a major intellectual figure and situate his ideas within current trends and developments in social theory 21st Century Communication: A Reference Handbook William F. Eadie,2009-05-15 Highlights the most important topics issues questions and debates affecting the field of communication in the 21st Century Social Theory for English for Academic Purposes Alex Ding,Michelle Evans,2022-07-28 This book written by pioneering architects of original social theory in educational linguistic fields as well as expert practitioners systematically exposes the sociological commitments of mainstream ideas and theories in English for Academic Purposes EAP commitments which are very often not fully examined by the discipline but nonetheless shape practitioners ideas and their praxis The initial chapters outline what social theory is the normative critical descriptive social and generative purposes it serves the scope and limits of social theory and tracing the major historical traditions and recent currents This mapping of social theory is followed by a detailed argument that makes the case for the centrality of social theory for EAP practitioners and praxis and the need to develop a sociological imagination to enhance knowledge and agency of practitioners The contributions reveal the sociological foundations and commitments that underpin established theories in EAP such as genre theories systemic functional linguistics and academic literacies Each of these three major research streams in EAP is subject to critical analysis linking each of these streams to the sociological commitments that underpin them Finally the book explores the social theories and approaches that have yet to make a full or significant impact on EAP research and practice but would enable practitioners and researchers to understand educational contexts texts structures culture s knowledge production and producers and social agents with greater sociological clarity and sophistication Topics covered include social realism legitimation code theory critical realism ethnography feminism and Bourdieusian concepts for EAP The overarching aim of this volume is to position social theory much more centrally to frameworks and conceptions of the unstable and contested knowledge base for EAP practitioners and to promote a sociological imagination among and for EAP practitioners Traditions of Eloquence Cinthia Gannett, John Brereton, 2016-05-25 This groundbreaking collection explores the important ways Jesuits have employed rhetoric the ancient art of persuasion and the current art of communications from the sixteenth century to the present Much of the history of how Jesuit traditions contributed to the development of rhetorical theory and pedagogy has been lost effaced or dispersed As a result those interested in Jesuit education and higher education in the United States as well as scholars and teachers of rhetoric are often unaware of this living 450 year old tradition Written by highly regarded scholars of rhetoric composition education philosophy and history many based at Jesuit colleges and universities the essays in this volume explore the tradition of Jesuit rhetorical education that is constructing a more usable past and a viable future for eloquentia perfecta the Jesuits chief aim for the liberal arts Intended to foster eloquence across the curriculum and into the world beyond Jesuit rhetoric integrates intellectual rigor broad knowledge civic action and spiritual discernment as the chief goals of the educational experience Consummate scholars and rhetors the early Jesuits employed all the intellectual and language arts as contemplatives in action preaching and undertaking missionary educational and charitable works in the world The study pedagogy and practice of classical grammar and rhetoric adapted to Christian humanism naturally provided a central focus of this powerful educational system as part of the Jesuit commitment to the Ministries of the Word This book traces the development of Jesuit rhetoric in Renaissance Europe follows its expansion to the United States and documents its reemergence on campuses and in scholarly discussions across America in the twenty first century Traditions of Eloquence provides a wellspring of insight into the past present and future of Jesuit rhetorical traditions In a period of ongoing reformulations and applications of Jesuit educational mission and identity this collection of compelling essays helps provide historical context a sense of continuity in current practice and a platform for creating future curricula and pedagogy Moreover it is a valuable resource for anyone interested in understanding a core aspect of the Jesuit educational heritage

Handbook of Cultural Politics and Education, 2010-01-01 In academia the effects of the cultural turn have been felt deeply In everyday life tenets from cultural politics have influenced how people behave or regard their options for action such as the reconfiguration of social movements protests and praxis in general Many authors writing in this field are known for their scholarship and social activism both of which are arguably guided by principles of cultural politics about the nature of representation and the deployment of power in political discourses The Handbook of Cultural Politics and Education is less an attempt to standardize contemporary educational scholarship and more a collection that engages the problems and promises of recent themes in social and cultural thought which require our attention and demand a response In other words it opens doors to questions rather than convenient answers to difficult educational dilemmas The Handbook is part of the appraisal of an opening created by interdisciplinary writings on such themes as representation civil society cultural struggle subjectivity and media within the context of education Indeed cultural politics troubles traditional frameworks in search of critical explanations concerning education's place within society The contributions in the collection support this endeavor

Rhetorical Realism Scot Barnett, 2016-11-10 Rhetorical Realism responds to the surging interest in nonhumans across the humanities by exploring how realist commitments have historically accompanied understandings of rhetoric from antiquity to the present For a discipline that often defines itself according to human speech and writing the nonhuman turn poses a number of challenges and opportunities for rhetoric To date many of the responses to the nonhuman turn in rhetoric have sought to address rhetoric's compatibility with new conceptions of materiality In Rhetorical Realism Scot Barnett extends this work by transforming it into a new historiographic methodology attuned to the presence and occlusion of things in rhetorical history Through investigations of rhetoric's place in Aristotelian metaphysics the language invention movement of the seventeenth century and postmodern conceptions of rhetoric as an epistemic art Barnett's study expands the scope of rhetorical inquiry by showing how realist ideas have worked to frame rhetoric's scope and meanings during key moments in its history Ultimately Barnett argues that all versions of rhetoric depend upon some realist assumptions about the world Rather than conceive of the nonhuman as a dramatic turning point in rhetorical theory Rhetorical Realism encourages rhetorical theorists to turn another eye toward what rhetoricians have always done defining and configuring rhetoric within a broader ontology of things

Social Constructionist Identity Politics and Literary Studies S. Gupta, 2007-01-10 This study presents a critique of social constructionist identity politics which is distinguished from specific identity based political positions from within and with social constructionist commitments Gupta examines the institutionalization of social constructionist identity politics in literary studies considering the notions of canonicity

Theorizing the Avant-Garde Richard John Murphy, 1999-04-22 In Modernism Expressionism and Theories of the Avant Garde Richard Murphy mobilises theories of the postmodern to challenge our understanding of the avant garde He assesses the importance of the avant garde for contemporary culture and for the debates among theorists of postmodernism such as Jameson Eagleton Lyotard and Habermas Murphy reconsiders the classic formulation of the avant garde in Lukacs and Bloch especially their discussion of aesthetic autonomy and investigates the relationship between art and politics via a discussion of Marcuse Adorno and Benjamin Combining close textual readings of a wide range of films as well as works of literature it draws on a rich array of critical theories such as those of Bakhtin Todorov MacCabe Belsey and Raymond Williams This interdisciplinary project will appeal to all those interested in modernist and avant garde movements of the early twentieth century and provides a critical rethinking of the present day controversy regarding postmodernity

Resounding the Rhetorical Byron Hawk, 2018-07-31 Resounding the Rhetorical offers an original critical and theoretical examination of composition as a quasi object As composition flourishes in multiple media digital sonic visual etc Byron Hawk seeks to connect new materialism with current composition scholarship and critical theory Using sound and music as his examples he demonstrates how a quasi object can and does materialize for communicative and affective expression and becomes a useful mechanism for the study and execution of composition as a discipline Through careful readings of Serres Latour Deleuze Heidegger and others Hawk reconstructs key concepts in the field including composition process research collaboration publics and rhetoric His work delivers a cutting edge response to the state of the field where it is headed and the possibilities for postprocess and postwriting composition and rhetoric

Renegotiating Ethics in Literature, Philosophy, and Theory Jane Adamson, Richard Freadman, David Parker, 1998-12-10 Is it possible for postmodernism to offer viable coherent accounts of ethics Or are our social and intellectual worlds too fragmented for any broad consensus about the moral life These issues have emerged as some of the most contentious in literary and philosophical studies In Renegotiating Ethics in Literature Philosophy and Theory a distinguished international gathering of philosophers and literary scholars address the reconceptualisations involved in this turn towards ethics An important feature of this has been a renewed interest in the literary text as a focus for the exploration of ethical issues Exponents of this trend include Charles Taylor Bernard Williams Iris Murdoch Cora Diamond Richard Rorty and Martha Nussbaum the latter a contributor and a key figure in this volume This book assesses the significance of this development for ethical and literary theory and attempts to articulate an alternative postmodern account of ethics which does not rely on earlier appeals to universal truths

Between Witness and Testimony Michael Bernard-Donals, Richard Glejzer, 2001-10-19 Examines the ethical and pedagogical stakes of representing the Holocaust in books films and museum exhibits

Race, Whiteness, and Education Zeus Leonardo, 2009-05-12 In the colorblind era of Post Civil Rights America race is often wrongly thought to be irrelevant or at best a problem of racist individuals rather than a systemic condition to be confronted Race Whiteness and Education interrupts this dangerous assumption by reaffirming a critical appreciation of the central role that race and racism still play in schools and society Author Zeus Leonardo s conceptual engagement of race and whiteness asks questions about its origins its maintenance and envisages its future This book does not simply rehearse exhausted ideas on the relationship among race class and education but instead offers new ways of understanding how multiple social relations interact with one another and of their impact in thinking about a more genuine sense of multiculturalism By asking fundamental questions about whiteness in schools and society Race Whiteness and Education goes to the heart of race relations and the common sense understandings that sustain it thus painting a clearer picture of the changing face of racism

Consequences of Enlightenment Anthony J. Cascardi, 1999-02-04 What is the relationship between contemporary intellectual culture and the European Enlightenment it claims to reject In Consequences of Enlightenment Anthony Cascardi revisits the arguments advanced in Horkheimer and Adorno s seminal work Dialectic of Enlightenment Cascardi argues against the view that postmodern culture has rejected Enlightenment beliefs and explores instead the continuities contemporary theory shares with Kant's failed ambition to bring the project of Enlightenment to completion. He explores the link between aesthetics and politics in thinkers as diverse as Habermas, Derrida, Arendt, Nietzsche, Hegel, and Wittgenstein in order to reverse the tendency to see works of art simply in terms of the worldly practices among which they are situated.

Heterotropic Theatres Russell West-Pavlov, 2025-05-26. This book seeks to elaborate a theory of troping that expands the purview of linguistic work and agency parsing its transformative work beyond the limits usually set by theories of language. It registers a sea change in the theorization of theatrical art from representation to intervention. The book thereby seeks to lay bare the activity of language as a heterotopology. It focuses on early modern theatre from Shakespeare's Hamlet, Macbeth, Romeo and Juliet, Troilus and Cressida, and other theatrical forms of the same era, the Court Masque dramas by Ford or Johnson through to the Restoration, it also reads a number of contemporary avatars of Shakespearean texts from Stoppard to Jones and of early modern and postmodern performance spaces such as the New Globe Theatre. In a dozen readings of early modern theatre, it asks how the remarkable energy and social purchase ascribed to theatrical language by contemporary commentators can be reconceptualized, mobilized anew, and thus harnessed for our own turbulent times.
