Principles Of Effective Coaching Pb 1997:

The Process of Highly Effective Coaching Robert F. Hicks, 2017-01-20 The Process of Highly Effective Coaching offers a unique blend of theory and practical methods for conducting effective coaching conversations. It provides an umbrella under which all of the major conceptual models for helping people change can not only coexist but work together. In addition to using this integrative approach, The Process of Highly Effective Coaching presents a framework for conducting coaching conversations and for relating the coaching process to the coaching competencies defined by the International Coach Federation, the largest coach credentialing organization in the world.

The Gower Assessment and Development Centre Julie Hay, 2017-05-15 Assessment and Development Centres offer a detailed and objective way of assessing your people's potential, whether you are trying to establish training and development needs, identify potential for promotion, assess and select new recruits to your organization, or using the centre in some other way. To make this assessment possible involves a huge investment in time, money, and effort to plan, design, administer, and run each centre, and to effectively analyse and use all of the data it will generate. These three volumes are designed to help you set up and run your own assessment and development centres within your organization. Alternatively, if you already run centres, the manuals will allow you to evaluate and improve your administration, planning, and assessment, as well as to introduce new exercises.

Volume 3: In Tray Simulations contains full documentation for the participants, the assessors, and the programme manager for running in-tray simulations of varying levels of complexity. Each exercise contains briefing papers to explain the exercise to participants, background information, items of correspondence, reports, messages, and so on, for participants to deal with, guidelines to help assessors evaluate the actions taken, and relate these to assessment criteria.

Other volumes: Volume 1: Planning and Administration; Volume 2: Assessment Activities. Each volume is available separately or as a three-volume set.
