divisions it is metafeminism a term coined by Lori Saint Martin that defines and embraces that disorder As a carefully devised reading practice metafeminism understands contemporary feminist literature and theory as both recalling and extending the tropes and politics of the past In Cautiously Hopeful Marie Carri re brings together seemingly disparate writing by Anglo Canadian Indigenous and Qu b cois women authors under the banner of metafeminism Familiarizing readers with major streams of feminist thought including intersectionality affect theory and care ethics Carri re shows how literary works by such authors as Dionne Brand Nicole Brossard Naomi Fontaine Larissa Lai Tracey Lindberg and Rachel Zolf among others tackle the entanglement of gender with race settler invader colonialism heteronormativity positionality language and the posthuman condition Meanwhile tenable alliances among Indigenous women women of colour and settler feminist practitioners emerge Carri re s tone is personal and accessible throughout in itself a metafeminist gesture that both encompasses and surpasses a familiar feminist form of writing Despite the growing anti feminist backlash across media platforms and in various spheres of political and social life a hopefulness animates this timely work that like metafeminism stands alert to the challenges that feminism faces in its capacity to effect social change in the twenty first century

The Riel Problem Albert Braz, 2024-06-06 Tracing Louis Riel s metamorphosis from traitor to hero Braz argues that through his writing Riel resists his portrayal as both a Canadian patriot and a pan Indigenous leader After being hanged for high treason in 1885 the M tis politician poet and mystic has emerged as a quintessential Canadian champion The Riel Problem maps this representational shift by examining a series of cultural and scholarly commemorations of Riel since 1967 from a large scale opera about his life through the publication of his extant writings to statues erected in his honour Braz also probes how aspects of Riel s life and writing can be problematic for many contemporary M tis artists scholars and civic leaders Analyzing representations of Riel in light of his own writings the author exposes both the constructedness of the Canadian nation state and the magnitude of the current historical revisionism when dealing with Riel Restoring the Balance Gail Guthrie Valaskakis, Eric Guimond, Madeleine Dion Stout, 2011-07-15 First Nations peoples believe the eagle flies with a female wing and a male wing showing the importance of balance between the feminine and the masculine in all aspects of individual and community experiences Centuries of colonization however have devalued the traditional roles of First Nations women causing a great gender imbalance that limits the abilities of men women and their communities in achieving self actualization Restoring the Balance brings to light the work First Nations women have performed and continue to perform in cultural continuity and community development It illustrates the challenges and successes they have had in the areas of law politics education community healing language and art while suggesting significant options for sustained improvement of individual family and community well being Written by fifteen Aboriginal scholars activists and community leaders Restoring the Balance combines life histories and biographical accounts with historical and critical analyses grounded in traditional thought and approaches It is a powerful and important book In the Belly of a Laughing God Jennifer Andrews, 2011-12-15 How can humour and irony in writing both create and destroy boundaries In the Belly of a Laughing God examines how eight contemporary Native women poets in Canada and the United States Joy Harjo Louise Halfe Kimberly Blaeser Marilyn Dumont Diane Glancy Jeannette Armstrong Wendy Rose and Marie Annharte Baker employ humour and irony to address the intricacies of race gender and nationality While recognizing that humour and irony are often employed as methods of resistance this careful analysis also acknowledges the ways that they can be used to assert or restore order Using the framework of humour and irony five themes emerge from the words of these poets religious transformations generic transformations history memory and the nation photography and representational visibility and land and the significance of home Through the double voice discourse of irony and the textual surprises of humour these poets challenge hegemonic renderings of themselves and their cultures even as they enforce their own cultural norms

Reclamation and Resurgence Marilyn Dumont, 2024-05-16 To describe the writing of Marilyn Dumont is to call her a poet of reclamation and resurgence Some thirty five years ago she set about documenting her life as a young M tis woman and telling the story of her people the Red River M tis and in the process she has become a principal literary voice for the Renaissance of the M tis nation To understand Marilyn Dumont s work is to understand M tis culture and history that of a people who originated in the 17th century upon the meeting of the First Nations and the newcomers the European voyageurs and cartographers who travelled along the great waterways of Turtle Island North America How does a M tis poet write about a country where its politicians and bureaucrats are honoured as national figures when they made family fortunes from confiscated M tis and First Nations lands For Dumont the answer to this question resides in telling the truth about the present and the past Through carefully crafted poems Dumont takes the reader through a range of personal and historically connected experiences grounded in emotional truth For Dumont perception like memory is as much about the body as it is the mind surfacing as visionary insight which has become the hallmark of her poetry Reclamation and Resurgence contains poems selected from A Really Good Brown Girl green girl dreams Mountains from that tongued belonging and The Pemmican Eaters as well as previously uncollected poems and includes an introduction by Armand Garnet Ruffo and an afterword Contradictory Co existence by Marilyn Dumont Borderlands W. H. New, 2011-11-01 Under the general title of Borderlands the three related essays in this monograph address the rhetoric of border boundary in Canadian studies and its social political and cultural implications the character of cultural responses to Canada US border tensions and two specific examples of how border transgressions continue to affect current Washington State and British Columbia cultural expression A number of motifs appear throughout these essays including the politics of separation the persistence of racist discourse in North America and of attempts to counter it the role of education in informing public debate the existence of communally held social values in Canada the necessity of the arts the power of language and the relation between social choice and indeterminacy The first essay Giddy Limits ranges the most widely drawing on examples from history and literature geography and popular culture It elucidates the politics of various recurrent rhetorical strategies in Canadian cultural commentary The second essay The Edge of Everything pursues a series of specific applications of border rhetoric including irony national policies and oppositional strategies to Canada US relations The third essay The Centre of Somewhere Else looks in part at the rhetoric of two contemporary writers Seattle's David Guterson and Victoria's Jack Hodgins in relation to the 1859 Pig War and to curricular reform This final essay demonstrates further how the large issues raised in the first two essays resonate both in historical narrative and in contemporary social and cultural practice Selling Sex Emily van der Meulen, Elya M. can play in response to gendered colonial violence Indigenous communities have been organizing against violence since newcomers first arrived but the cases of missing and murdered women have only recently garnered broad public attention Violence Against Indigenous Women joins the conversation by analyzing the socially interventionist work of Indigenous women poets playwrights filmmakers and fiction writers Organized as a series of case studies that pair literary interventions with recent sites of activism and policy critique the book puts literature in dialogue with anti violence debate to illuminate new pathways toward action With the advent of provincial and national inquiries into missing and murdered Indigenous women and girls a larger public conversation is now underway Indigenous women s literature is a critical site of knowledge making and critique Violence Against Indigenous Women provides a foundation for reading this literature in the context of Indigenous feminist scholarship and activism and the ongoing intellectual history of Indigenous women s resistance
