Rear View Stories:

God in the Rear View Mirror LaVila Henry, 2016-04-05 Do you have a dream that seems to be lying in the grave Is there a relationship that needs a revival Do you react with anxiety when things don't appear to be going the way you think they should Has God ever placed you strategically and solely for the benefit of someone else Have you stopped to appreciate the smallest blessings or a kindness either given or received When God is at work often we see what He has done only after the fact This book offers encouragement that God is always there watching out for His children It gives hope that no circumstance is truly hopeless It emphasizes the importance of recognizing and appreciating God's help through life altering experiences as well as noticing and valuing the very smallest blessings we receive from Him It reminds us to look for God in the rearview mirror
