David James Cantor, 2018-04-24 By 2017 it was estimated that over 40 million people were displaced within their own countries by conflict and violence across at least 56 countries worldwide Solutions to the epidemic of forced internal displacement are frequently premised on the return of internally displaced persons IDPs Indeed as a characteristic need of IDPs such returns benefit from a special protection framework developed by IDP protection instruments such as the Guiding Principles However the legal status of those instruments remains ambiguous generating attendant questions about the congruity of the IDP return framework with existing international law Moreover limited knowledge exists on its practical implementation As a result both international agencies and individual scholars have repeatedly issued urgent calls for comprehensive and grounded theoretical investigation into this topic This book answers those long standing calls for research by presenting a detailed study of the return of conflict affected IDPs under international law Returning

Home: Housing and Property Restitution Rights for Refugees and Displaced Persons Scott Leckie, 2021-11-15 This volume is a unique effort to cover the topic of the restitution of housing and property in light of lessons learned in the Balkans South Africa East Timor and in a range of other countries that have made the shift from conflict to peace Individual chapters by authors with direct experience dealing with housing and property restitution in particular contexts will bring into focus the legal and human rights aspects of this question All parties involved in human rights refugee assistance post conflict reconstruction and reconciliation and property rights will find this volume to be an indispensable resource now that housing and property restitution is viewed as an essential element of post conflict reconstruction and a primary means of reversing ethnic cleansing Benjamin Franklin's English Yoko Iyeiri, 2024-11-06 This book delves into Benjamin Franklin's
