African Section,1964     A Saharan Sketchbook Olivia Willes,2003 A journey through inhospitable landscapes proves to be challenging in the extreme While employed by the Cameroons Development Corporation CDC the author who finds herself drawn to hot arid and sandy places cherishes a seemingly impossible ambition to return to Europe via the Sahara when her contract ends As the Fates would have it a Dutch journalist materialises one day in this small close knit Cameroons community Named Pete he has just traversed the Sahara in a southerly direction alone with a motor cycle with sidecar Serious planning began and an apparently suitable pickup truck became available in Douala Travel of the kind envisaged was quite unusual at the time something definitely unorthodox compared to the ways of the British colonials ways in which they were perhaps too set What was expected to take a leisurely three months eventually took seven No amount of planning could have avoided the mechanical failures and other setbacks Yet what transpired was a hugely rewarding experience The story proceeds stage by stage involving the reader in the catastrophes the moments of hilarity the fatigue and despair and the prevailing satisfaction for the author of achieving her aim against all the odds Throughout this book everything is recorded with complete accuracy unembroidered and not fictionalised It opens our eyes to how people and places were when travel had not yet reached the mass commercial levels of today effectively recreating encounters and interchanges welcoming or otherwise that coloured this remarkable journey

Peters-Hill,2020-09-25 Reconnaissance au Maroc is Charles de Foucauld s adventurous account of his Moroccan explorations For eleven months in 1883-84 Foucauld travelled through a country then off limits to Europeans documenting its landscape and charting its waterways He travelled in disguise as a Russian rabbi Joseph Aleman accompanied by the real rabbi Mardochee Aby Serour and sought hospitality in the mellahs Jewish quarters of villages along their route Foucauld meticulously recorded every day of his time in Morocco and by the time his memoir was published in 1888 it had already garnered praise in France and the prestigious gold medal from the Soci t  de G ographie de Paris The book is more than merely a travel memoir however as an artefact of cultural and religious encounter and as a scientific compendium Reconnaissance au Maroc offers an extraordinary glimpse of the late nineteenth century French mentality toward North Africa as well as a cross section of Moroccan society in the pre colonial era Rosemary Peters Hill s volume translates Foucauld s work into English for the first time situating Reconnaissance within the contexts of both late nineteenth century French writing about ailleurs other places and Foucauld s own journey through Morocco the other place where paradoxically he found his true self and calling

Drawing in the Present Tense Roger Malbert, Claire Gilman, 2023-04-26 This book explores the variety of ways in which contemporary artists from around the world have come to approach drawing as the primary sometimes the sole element of their practice and one which is autonomous an end in itself rather than a means to an end in another more substantial medium In an era of advanced technologies where image production has accelerated potentially beyond the capacity of human attention what values can be attributed to the slow deliberate process of drawing by hand The artworks featured in this volume are not confined to traditional tools one can also draw on a computer tablet or smartphone and examples of digital drawing are incorporated into the narrative not as a separate category but as one medium among many Grouped thematically by specific approaches including abstraction and figuration nature and artifice social observation and critique with essays and feature spreads for each section this selection of international artists of diverse backgrounds and experience includes not only recognizable names such as Michael Armitage Camille Henrot Robert Longo Amy Sillman and Kara Walker but also a host of emerging talents Beautifully presented in a visually appealing and tactile format with the feel of an artists portfolio this is an inspiring overview of the best drawing practice today about exotic languages is owed to the linguistic activities of missionaries. They had the languages put into writing, described their grammar and lexicon, and worked towards a standardization which often came with Eurocentric manipulation. Colonial missionary work as intellectual religious conquest formed part of the Europeans' political colonial rule, although it sometimes went against the specific objectives of the official administration. In most cases it did not help to stop or even reinforced the displacement and discrimination of those languages, despite oftentimes providing their very first, sometimes remarkable, sometimes incorrect descriptions. This volume presents exemplary studies on Catholic and Protestant missionary linguistics in the framework of the respective colonial situation and policies under Spanish, German, or British rule. The contributions cover colonial contexts in Latin America, Africa, and Asia across the centuries. They demonstrate how missionaries, dealing with linguistic analyses and descriptions, cooperated with colonial institutions and how their linguistic knowledge contributed to European domination.

Hudson River School Visions Sanford Robinson Gifford, 2003. Sanford Gifford, American 1823-1880, a leading Hudson River School landscape painter and a founder of The Metropolitan Museum of Art, was so esteemed by the New York art world that at his untimely death the Museum mounted a show of his work, the first monographic exhibition accorded any artist, and published a Memorial Catalogue that for nearly a century remained the principal source on his oeuvre. Gifford's art, which was inspired by the work of Thomas Cole, the founder of the Hudson River School, and by that of British artist J. M. W. Turner, and enriched by his travels in Europe from 1855 to 1857 and from 1868 to 1869, came to be called 'air painting' for he made the ambient light of each scene color saturated and atmospherically potent, the key to its expression. His approach to painting and his unique style gave rise to a highly distinctive body of work with enchanting and mesmerizing effect. This publication examines seventy paintings by the artist and includes comparative illustrations of related works by Gifford, his Hudson River School mentors and colleagues, and those painters in addition to Cole and Turner who exerted influence on his art, including Frederic Edwin Church and John F. Kensett. The essays discuss Gifford's place in the Hudson River School, his numerous Catskill Mountain subjects, his experiences and perceptions as a traveler both at home and abroad, and the variety of his patrons. A Secret Woman Rose Solari, 2012. Louise Terry is the quintessential modern American woman: a successful and independent artist, sexually liberated, and headstrong. She determined to carve out a life for herself where her painting comes first and where she can avoid messy romantic entanglements. But when her estranged mother, Margaret, dies, leaving a box of documents, photos, and journals, Louise discovers in its contents a new and very different woman from the one who raised her. This Margaret was admired by Catholic priests and Wiccan priestesses alike for her spiritual gifts and was working at the time of her death on assembling her visions of a 12th-century cross-dressing woman mystic who not only managed to infiltrate the male bastion of Glastonbury Abbey but who instigated the tragic fire that burned it to the ground in 1184. Determined to pursue the fragments her mother left behind Louise travels to England where she meets a cast of characters whom she must depend on to find her way Blurring the boundaries between past and present between the body and the spirit between female and male this page turning mystery is a sexy romp through time and space a profound meditation on the mother daughter connection and an enlightening exploration of what it means to make love to make art and to make a life worth living
