Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 7 Charles Erlandson, 2024-03-29 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he s not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual s life but also to the life of the Church At the end of each day s devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day s lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer

the only known sermons for churchings challenging for views on women and marriage more conservative than many of Donne's contemporaries and as evidence of Donne's Calvinist sacramental theology and his anti Catholicism They are also fine examples of Donne's skill in crafting emotionally compelling sermons suited to the unique demands of both occasion and auditory

The Diary of Samuel Pepys, Vol. 7 Samuel Pepys, 2000-12-15 Samuel Pepys is as much a paragon of literature as Chaucer and Shakespeare His Diary is one of the principal sources for many aspects of the history of its period In spite of its significance all previous editions were inadequately edited and suffered from a number of omissions until Robert Latham and William Matthews went back to the 300 year old original manuscript and deciphered each passage and phrase no matter how obscure or indiscreet The Diary deals with some of the most dramatic events in English history Pepys witnessed the London Fire the Great Plague the Restoration of Charles II and the Dutch Wars He was a patron of the arts having himself composed many delightful songs and participated in the artistic life of London His flair for gossip and detail reveals a portrait of the times that rivals the most swashbuckling and romantic historical novels In none of the earlier versions was there a reliable full text with commentary and notation with any claim to completeness This edition first published in 1970 is the first in which the entire diary is printed with systematic comment This is the only complete edition available it is as close to Pepys's original as possible

Pastoral Leadership Won Sang Lee, 2015-01-14 In ascending to heaven Jesus Christ gave the church the Great Commission to expand the gospel to all nations Despite this biblical commission it is still an unfinished task As leaders of local churches pastors play a crucial part in this endeavor Pastoral leadership principles have varied widely throughout history yet it is interesting to discover the similarities between pastoral leadership principles practiced by John Chrysostom AD 347-407 in Antioch and Constantinople and Won Sang Lee 1937 in Washington DC Despite ministering 1600 years apart both pastors share the same core values care for people Christ-like character biblical preaching and world missions This suggests that continued emphasis on these principles will play a significant role in fulfilling the Great Commission
