St. Paul in Britain Richard Williams Morgan, 2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1861 edition Excerpt CHAPTER IV The British Royal Family At Rome The Abima TH EAN OB FIBST Intboduction OF Chbistianity Into Britain TAVING thus established the British king and his family in the Titulus we turn our attention to St Paul who arrived at Rome for the first time on his appeal to Caesar A d 58a His previous history as being familiar to every reader of the Scriptures we omit taking up its continuation where it becomes connected with that of our British ancestors A strong Christian Church celebrated for its zeal and fidelity existed in Rome before the visit of St Paul or any other apostle to it We know from many passages in the Epistle to the Romans itself that at the time of its composition and despatch St Paul had not yet been to Rome Amongst the members of the Church however were some not only of the most intimate fellow labourers and friends but relatives of the Apostle Some of the latter such as Andronicus and Junia had been converted before him Herodion is mentioned as another kinsman In connection with Rufus Pudens who is saluted by name occurs another salutation which originates an interesting question the right solution of which would throw a flood of light on this part of the history both of Paul and Pudens Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord and his mother and mine Does this mean natural or spiritual relationship We are inclined to believe the former A spiritual father or mother is in Gospel phraseology the person who converts another to Christ St Paul s conversion was effected by Christ Himself by a direct miracle With respect to him the terms could not be applied to any human being Was then the mother of Rufus the mother also of Paul Were Rufus and Paul half brothers the latter the Saint Paul in Britain R W Morgan, 2020-09-07 R W Morgan proposes that St Paul introduced Christianity to Celtic Britain and that the Christian church and the first ancestors of the modern royal family were established several centuries prior to what is conventionally thought Although the ideas and theories of R W Morgan are discredited and unpopular in the modern day his investigations into the early church history of Britain are interesting and thought provoking Following on from his research of ancient sources Morgan proposes the concept of the apostolic church a Christianity developed independent of the later Roman church was more compatible with the existing Druidic order of Britain and appealing to the native population With this line of reasoning the idea Paul founded Christianity in Britain is considered plausible The idea that St Paul and his retinue of early Christians journeyed across the Roman Empire to Great Britain was not new The possibility was raised by scholar Edward Cardwell who dismissed the event as unsubstantiated speculation There is no evidence that Christianity spread to the British Isles so soon after the life of Christ St Paul died in the 60s AD Morgan also introduces the idea that England s monarchs are related to the early Christians asserting that Boudica and Caratacus converted to Christendom Saint Paul in Britain R. W. Morgan,1861
