speculative fiction to account for texts that seem to follow trajectories mapped by the huge body of science fiction accumulated in the last century while retaining a central interest in traditional literary strategies This book examines a variety of work from the transrealist perspective something that has not been done previously It emphasizes the texts of Philip K Dick and Rucker himself while it additionally engages the texts of such slipstream writers as Kurt Vonnegut J G Ballard and John Barth It places its argument against the antihumanist trend in science fiction and builds comparisons with more traditional varieties of science fiction works

Corresponding Sense Brook W.R. Pearson,2021-10-01 Corresponding Sense represents a turning point in the application of hermeneutics to New Testament texts Following the example of Hans Georg Gadamer s philosophical hermeneutics Pearson treats several different problems in New Testament interpretation centred around the figure of Paul In so doing he demonstrates how a dialogical approach to the interpretation of ancient texts functions pragmatically to allow for a deeper understanding not only of individual texts but also of their siting with the larger dialectical web of the texts and contexts of the ancient world This approach developed here in connection with the New Testament also has relevance to other literature In Corresponding Sense Pearson outlines what he calls a dialectical topography the tracing of connections and disjunctions between texts and their subject matter both within and outside of the New Testament He uses both theoretical and practical discussion to demonstrate this approach showing how it functions as a new way of approaching a Paul who is a member of a much larger community than simply the Judaism of his fathers a Paul who participates in cultural narratives which extend throughout not only earliest Christianity but also into the wider thought world of the Roman Empire
