Studio Saint-Ex Ania Szado, 2013-06-04 A sleek stylish novel set in the sophisticated dazzling New York of the 1940s between the shock of Pearl Harbor and the first landing of American troops in Europe a deft romantic novel about a wartime triangle involving a twenty two year old fashion designer poised to launch her promising career the acclaimed French expatriate writer war pilot Antoine de Saint Exupéry who's fled his Nazi occupied country and come to Manhattan for a month only to stay for two years and his beautiful estranged Salvadoran wife the tempestuous vain Consuelo determined to win back her husband at all costs and seductions With Paris under occupation by Hitler's troops New York's Mayor La Guardia has vowed to turn his city into the new fashion capital of the world A handful of American designers are set to become the industry's first names and Mignon Lachapelle is determined to be among them Her ambition and ethics are clear and uncomplicated until she falls for the celebrated and tormented adventurer Captain Antoine de Saint Exupéry who six months after the surrender of France has fled Europe's ashen skies after flying near suicidal reconnaissance missions for the French Air Force In New York he writes a new book on the fall of France Flight to Arras it becomes a number one best seller and collects a year later his 1939 National Book Award for his Wind Sand and Stars a poetic account of his flying escapades over North Africa and South America by the time of his arrival in New York in early 1941 the book has sold 250 000 copies To distract himself from his malaise about France and at being in exile and at his publisher's offhand suggestion he begins work on a children's story about a petit bonhomme in the Sahara Desert Nothing about Mig's relationship with Saint Ex is simple not his turmoil and unhappiness about being in New York and grounded from wartime skies nor Mig's tempestuous sexual encounter with Antoine and the blurring boundaries of their artistic pursuits or Saint Exupéry's wife who insidiously entangles Mig in her schemes to reclaim her husband The greatest complication of Mig's bond with Saint Exupéry comes in the form of a deceptively simple manuscript Antoine's work in progress about a little boy a prince who's fallen to earth on a journey across the planets An irresistible novel that brings to life the complex now almost mythic Saint Exupéry and the glittering life of wartime New York This ebook edition includes a Reading Group Guide Beyond Babar Sandra L. Beckett, Maria Nikolajeva, 2006-08-19 All too often attention is paid only to those children's novels that were written in English with non-English language works being passed over and neglected Beyond Babar The European Tradition in Children's Literature examines eleven of the most celebrated European children's novels in substantial critical essays written by well-known international scholars This approach provides a comprehensive discussion of the selected works from a variety of theoretical perspectives Each essay offers a critical introduction to the text that can serve as a point of departure for literary scholars professors of children's literature primary and secondary school teachers and librarians who are interested in texts that cross languages and cultures Beyond Babar is especially meant to assist instructors of children's literature who would like to use these texts in the classroom in order to begin to redress the English language dominance of many children's literature courses This volume will also be of interest to the general public as its ultimate aim is to bring to the attention of all English-speaking readers the literature from other parts of the world in this case from Europe Beyond Babar helps to facilitate the border crossings of these European masterpieces of children's literature into the English-speaking world

Foundation Layla AbdelRahim,2014-12-05 This study of children s literature as knowledge culture and social foundation bridges the gap between science and literature and examines the interconnectedness of fiction and reality as a two way road
The book investigates how the civilized narrative orders experience by means of segregation domestication breeding and extermination arguing instead that the stories and narratives of wilderness project chaos and infinite possibilities for experiencing the world through a diverse community of life AbdelRahim engages these narratives in a dialogue with each other and traces their expression in the various disciplines and books written for both children and adults analyzing the manifestation of fictional narratives in real life This is both an inter and multi disciplinary endeavor that is reflected in the combination of research methods drawn from anthropology and literary studies as well as in the tracing of the narratives of order and chaos or civilization and wilderness in children s literature and our world Chapters compare and contrast fictional children s books that offer different real world socio economic paradigms such as A A Milne s Winnie the Pooh projecting a civilized monarcho capitalist world Nikolai Nosov s trilogy on The Adventures of Dunno and Friends presenting the challenges and feats of an anarcho socialist society in evolution from primitivism towards technology and Tove Jansson s Moominbooks depicting the harmony of anarchy chaos and wildness AbdelRahim examines the construction transmission and acquisition of knowledge in children s literature by visiting the very nature of literature culture and language and the civilized structures that domesticate the world She brings radically new perspectives to the knowledge culture and construction of human beings making an invaluable contribution to a wide range of disciplines and for those engaged in revolutionizing contemporary debates on the nature of knowledge human identity and the world Illustrators' Sketchbooks be a beautiful object a work of art in its own right where every line is painstakingly considered It might be a pictorial playground where mistakes can make art The boundaries between sketchbooks notebooks and visual journals are often blurred lending to the creativity that fills their pages It is likely that you will recognize many of the illustrators featured including classic childhood favourites Beatrix Potter Jean de Brunhoff Edward Ardizzone and Tove Jansson and established names such as Beatrice Alemagna Oliver Jeffers and Shaun Tan Others are up and coming for example Charlotte Ager and Leah Yang Martin Salisbury draws on decades of experience as an illustrator and educator to shed light on the lives and work of each artist He even reveals pages from his own sketchbooks exposing the rawness of his ideas and the narratives that surround them As the reader will discover sketchbooks are often a fascinating and surprising window into the mind of the
