Comparative Study of Religions Y. Masih, 2013-01-01 A Comparative Study of Religions has been written by a scholar who has occupied himself with the subject of religion for over fifty years But no finality can be claimed the reason is that religion deals with what is transcendent in the sense that it deals with what man is going to be Advaitism terms this futuristic end as becoming Brahman Jainism as regaining one's pristine glory theists as becoming gold fit for heaven However Bergson and other evolutionists would say that religion is a collective and cooperative effort of men to become gods This simply means the divinising of man what Aurobindo calls supermind They refer to a state beyond human ills beyond human infatuation and beyond the befogging of human intellect This is known in Jainism as sarvajnata One thing is clear that fighting with other human beings in the name of religion is subhuman As religious men we are fellow travellers in the direction of the realm of spirit Here the nomenclature of Hindus Muslims Christians etc ceases to be meaningful Of course we have to go very far and we have not made any beginning yet However at present the advaitic principle of differences Brahman can serve the purpose of harmonizing all religions Here we have adopted this principle Secondly the key concepts of different religions have been shown to mingle with one another
