Saints for Now Clare Boothe Luce,1993 Saints for Now Clare Boothe Luce,1952 Saints for Now. [An Anthology of Essays] Clare Luce (formerly Boothe.),1952 Medieval Saints' Lives Emma Campbell,2008 The significance of Old French hagiography in current theoretical debates in medieval studies and the humanities Contending that the study of hagiography is significant both for a consideration of medieval literature and for current theoretical debates in medieval studies this book considers a range of Old French and Anglo Norman texts using modern theories of kinship and community to show how saints lives construe social and sexual relations Focusing on the depiction of the gift kinship and community the book maintains that social and sexual systems play a keyrole in vernacular hagiography Such systems along with the desires they produce and control are it is argued central to hagiography s religious functions particularly its role as a vehicle of community formation In attempting to think beyond the limits of human relationships saints lives nonetheless create an environment in which queer desires and modes of connection become possible suggesting that in this case at least the orthodox nurtures the queer This book thus suggests not only that medieval hagiography is worthy of greater attention but also that this corpus might provide an important resource for theorizing community in its medieval contexts and for thinking it in the present EMMA CAMPBELL is Associate Professor of French at the University of Warwick Live of the Irish Saints, with Special Festivals, and the Commemorations of Holy Persons O'Hanlon John Canon (Irish Catholic priest),1873 Saints Herald ,1887 Seven Types of Adventure Tale Martin Burgess Green,1991 From Alexandre Dumas to Raymond Chandler Martin Green examines adventure stories and their role in spreading the ideology of the modern nation state Seven Types of Adventure Tale studies widely read and influential adventure tales of the eighteenth through the twentieth centuries in the respectable literary forms Some of the authors considered are Dumas Scott Defoe Cooper Verne Buchan Kipling Twain and Chandler These stories though adapted and copied innumerable times and read in their native languages and in translation throughout the Western world have been largely neglected by literary theorists Green offers a way to take the adventure tale seriously by positioning these stories within a new theoretical framework Green places the tales in seven categories organized according to the type of central character in each story The first category is the Robinson Crusoe story which portrays the myth of entrepreneurial capitalism and modern or postfeudal politics This story has appeared in one hundred well known versions including The Swiss Family Robinson and Lord of the Flies since Defoe published his version The second category is the Three Musketeers story mythifying the birth of the French state and by extension the birth of other nation states The third is the Frontiersman story originally about American history but a powerful myth far beyond U S borders The fourth the Avenger story is tied to the myth of an avenging return by Napoleon to France but more generally to a threat to the bourgeois ruling classes of the nineteenth century Europe The fifth is the Wanderer story which relates to escaping from social discipline but also to spying and disguises and crossing frontiers of all kinds The sixth the Saga story is a revision of the Icelandic and Teutonic sagas and reflects the myth of resurgent Germany after its unification in 1870 And the seventh category more specific to the twentieth century is the Hunted Man story in which an individual hero is pitted against social juggernaut such as the state the Mafia or a giant corporation Seven Types of Adventure Tale is the second volume of a three volume study of adventure by Green that began with The Robinson Crusoe Story
