Performing Religion Gregory F. Barz, 2016-08-09 Performing Religion considers issues related to Tanzanian kwayas KiSwahili choirs musical communities most often affiliated with Christian churches and the music they make known as nyimbo za kwaya choir songs or muziki wa kwaya choir music The analytical approach adopted in this text focusing on the communities of kwaya is one frequently used in the fields of ethnomusicology religious studies culture studies and philosophy for understanding diversified social processes consciousness By invoking consciousness an attempt is made to represent the ways seemingly disparate traditions coexist thrive and continue within contemporary kwaya performance An East African kwaya is a community that gathers several times each week to define its spirituality musically Members of kwayas come together to sing to pray to support individual members in times of need and to both learn and pass along new and inherited faith traditions Kwayas negotiate between multiple musical traditions or just as often they reject an inherited musical system while others may continue to engage musical repertoires from both Europe and Africa Contemporary kwayas comfortably coexist in the urban musical soundscape of coastal Dar es Salaam along with jazz dance bands taarab ensembles ngoma performance groups Hindi film music rap reggae and the constant influx of recorded American and European popular musics This ethnography calls into question terms frequently used to draw tight boundaries around the study of the arts in African expressive religious cultures Such divisions of the arts present well defended boundaries and borders that are not sufficient for understanding the change adaptation preservation and integration that occur within a Tanzanian kwaya Boundaries break down within the everyday performance of East African kwayas such as Kwaya ya Upendo The Love Choir in Dar es Salaam as repertoires traditions histories and cultures interact within a performance of social identity

Introducing Linguistics

Joyce Bruhn de Garavito, John W. Schwieter, 2021-01-21 Everything we do involves language Assuming no prior knowledge this book offers students a contemporary introduction to the study of language Each thought provoking chapter is accessible to readers from a variety of fields and is helpfully organized across six parts sound structure and meaning language typologies and change language and social aspects language acquisition and language cognition and the brain The book s companion website also offers three brief chapters on language and computers animal communication and dialectal varieties of English The chapters feature illustrative tables figures and maps along with three types of pedagogical boxes Linguistic Tidbits Pause and Reflect and Eyes on World Languages that break up text contextualize information and provide colourful accents that give real data from languages across the globe Key words are bolded and defined in a glossary at the end of the book while end of chapter summaries and practice exercises reinforce the key points discussed

The Migrant in Arab Literature Martina Censi, Maria Elena Paniconi, 2022-12-20 This edited book offers a collection of fresh and critical essays that explore the representation of the migrant subject in modern and contemporary Arabic literature and discuss its role in shaping new forms of transcultural and transnational identities The selection of essays in this volume offers a set of new insights on a cluster of tropes self discovery alienation nostalgia transmission and translation of knowledge sense of exile reconfiguration of the relationship with the past and the identity and the building of transnational identity A coherent yet multi faceted narrative of micro stories and of transcultural and transnational Arab identities will emerge from the essays the volume aims at reversing the traditional perspective according to which a migrant subject is a non political actor In contrast to many books about migration and literature this one explores how the migrant subject becomes a specific literary trope a catalyst of modern alienation displacement and uncertain identity suggesting new forms of subjectification Multiple representations of the migrant subject inform and perform the possibility of new post national and transcultural individual and group identities and actively contribute to rewriting and decolonizing history

The Undergraduate's Companion to Arab Writers and Their Web Sites Dona S. Straley, 2004-08-30 This companion provides information on the lives and works of about 150 authors who write primarily in Arabic covering the first known works of Arabic literature in the 5th and 6th centuries A D to the present day While concentrating on literary authors writers from the fields of history geography and philosophy are also represented The individuals represented were chosen primarily from the Encyclopedia of Arabic Literature Among the major authors are Najib Mahfuz the 1988 Nobel laureate Nawal Saadawi the Egyptian physician who is the leading female literary author in the Arab world and the most frequently translated into English Abu al Ala al Ma arri the 11th century poet whose verses are taught to every Arab schoolchild and Avicenna the great physician and philosopher transmitter and interpreter of Aristotle whose work on medicine was long the standard not only in the Middle East but also in Latin translation in Europe In addition entries will be included for the anonymous romances so common in Arabic literature such as The Arabian Nights a cycle of stories perhaps even better known in the West than in the Arab world Interest in the history and culture of the Arab world at U S universities has taken a quantum leap since the events of September 11 2001 In this book the author demonstrates that at least three major distinct literary and cultural traditions are included within the fields of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies Arabic Persian and Turkic The Arabic tradition is the oldest largest and most widely dispersed Undergraduate courses in Arabic literature and culture are now being taught at both lower and upper levels at many universities Such courses are often used by undergraduates to fulfill basic educational requirements for their degrees Students in such courses often have difficulty finding information on Arab writers and this volume fills the void Salam Pax Salam Pax,2003 Bringing these writings together for the first time Salam Pax The Clandestine Diary of an Ordinary Iraqi provides one of the most gripping accounts of the Iraqi conflict Jacket Movements, Borders, and Identities in Africa Toyin Falola,Aribidesi Adisa Usman,2009 Migration has become a continuous phenomenon in the history of human societies Migration is synonymous with the history of Africa itself The migration of individuals and groups over time is associated with the emergence of cultures and of civilizations throughout the world This book establishes the centrality of migrations and movements of people in the historical evolution of African peoples and societies By making use of different sources oral archaeological and written and focusing on various subjects and geographical areas the book shows that migration was a multifaceted phenomenon which varied in nature and character over time and in different places Using carefully selected case studies drawn from across the continent the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations and the varying impact of slavery commerce gender religion colonialism poverty and development on the movements of people and ideas and on the development of states and societies on the continent most especially in the last two centuries The chapters are based on original research and recent thinking on migrations in Africa and their changing forms and dynamics since the pre colonial period The various topics addressed include the causes and consequences of migration population movements displacements migration experiences settlement patterns and strategies labor mobility immigrant societies identity and culture contact as well as conceptual and methodological aspects of research on migration The contributors represent scholars from diverse fields with extensive teaching and research experience Thus the book provides a broad but insightful overview of the subject of migrations from Preface and Introduction Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh,Layla Maleh,2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayez Suyoufie Memories of German Colonialism in Tanzania Reginald Elias Kirey,2023-08-21 German colonial history in today Tanzania Mainland is extensively documented but it has not been studied from its memory perspective despite it being widely remembered among the Tanzanians This book documents German colonial memories as shared cultural legacy that exists in forms of monuments archives and historical sites It also presents them as trans generational memory narratives that live in people s memories that are also commemorated in different ways like erection of war monuments The book analyzes memories of colonialism from the historical perspective showing how the collective memories like monuments and commemorations have undergone structural and institutional changes over time The study uses Michael Rothberg s multi directional theory together with other theoretical approaches to analyze various forms of German colonial memories in Tanzanian context The findings which are analyzed historically indicate that the collective memories of the Germans are cultural communicative commemorative functional and topographical They are also traumatic as well as nostalgic Arab and Middle Eastern Sport Adam Ehsan Ali,Umer Hussain,2025-09-11 This timely edited collection responds to an ongoing need for a critical Muslim studies approach to sport and physical cultures in the Arab World the Middle East and North Africa illuminating and legitimizing the sporting knowledge and experiences of those from physical cultures in these regions A Concise Guide to Islam (Introducing Islam) Ayman S. Ibrahim,2023-09-26 For many in the English speaking world Islam remains a mysterious religion What is Islam in the first place Does it mean peace or does it mean submission Can it mean both What is jihad Sharia Hadith Who is Allah What is a caliph caliphate or infidel In this compact volume an expert in the study of Islam provides explanations for more than one hundred important Islamic concepts and terms which are divided into major sections texts history faith and belief practice and religious duties jurisprudence and movements Ayman Ibrahim first introduces the section then defines each concept or term briefly Readers can read a chapter at a time or flip through the book to find concepts or terms as needed Each term is described based on original Muslim sources mainly written in Arabic as well as ample scholarly studies This introductory guide is written for anyone with little to no knowledge of Islam It complements the author s A Concise Guide to the Quran and A Concise Guide to the Life of Muhammad Together these three volumes are useful as a set of resources on Islam The Rough Guide to Oman Gavin Thomas,2013-10-17 Oman is one of the world s most exciting emerging tourist destinations offering a genuine taste of old Arabia and an oasis of traditional culture amidst the frantically modernizing Gulf states The country boasts a string of captivating attractions Scenically it s one of the region s most memorable destinations from the craggy uplands of the Hajar mountains to the spectacular fjords of the Musandam peninsula and the dramatic dunes of the Wahiba Sands Culturally the country boasts a variety of absorbing sights ranging from the traditional souks of Muscat Nizwa and Salalah to the atmospheric mudbrick towns and towering forts of the interior The new Rough Guide to Oman is the first in depth guide to this fascinating country complete with detailed coverage of all sights new state of the art maps and practical information including comprehensively road tested information about driving and walking routes both on and off the beaten track Originally published in print in 2011 Now available in ePub format Prayer in the City Patrick A. Desplat,Dorothea E. Schulz,2014-03-15 This volume envisions social practices surrounding mosques shrines and public spaces in urban contexts as a window on the diverse ways in which Muslims in different regional and historical settings imagine experience and inhabit places and spaces as sacred Unlike most studies on Muslim communities this volume focuses on cultural material and sensuous practices and urban everyday experience Drawing on a range of analytical perspectives the contributions examine spatial practices in Muslim societies from an interdisciplinary perspective an approach which has been widely neglected both in Islamic studies and social sciences The Rough Guide to Oman (Travel Guide eBook) APA Publications Limited,Rough Guides,2018-10-01 Discover this beguiling destination with the most incisive and entertaining guidebook on the market Whether you plan to watch turtles lay their eggs at Ras Al Jinz shop for bargains at the labyrinthine Muttrah Souk or hike the Hajar mountains The Rough Guide to Oman will show you the ideal places to sleep eat drink shop and visit along the way Independent trusted reviews written with Rough Guides trademark blend of humour honesty and insight to help you get the most out of your visit with options to suit every budget Full colour maps throughout navigate the historic quarter of Old Muscat or plot your route along the Rustaq Loop without needing to get online Stunning images a rich collection of inspiring colour photography Things not to miss Rough Guides rundown of Oman s best sights and experiences Itineraries carefully planned routes to help you organize your trip Detailed regional coverage whether off the beaten track or in more mainstream tourist destinations this travel guide has in depth practical advice for every step of the way Areas covered include Muscat the Hajar mountains Nizwa Al Hamra Al Batinah Seeb Barka the Rustaq Loop the Musandam peninsula Khasab Sharqiya Sur

Women, Gender and Language in Morocco Fatima Sadiqi, 2002-12-01 This volume deals with the complex but poorly understood relationship between women gender and language in Morocco a Muslim multilingual multicultural and developing country The hypothesis on which the book is based is that an understanding of gender perception and women's agency can be achieved only by taking into account the structure of power in a specific culture and that language is an important component of this power In Moroccan culture history geography Islam orality multilingualism social organization economic status and political system constitute the superstructures of power within which factors such as social differences contextual differences and identity differences interact in the daily linguistic performances of gender Moroccan women are far from constituting a homogeneous group consequently the choices available to them vary in nature and empowering capacity thus widening the spectrum of gender beyond cultural limits

Ahmadu Bamba and Decolonization Cheikh M. Ndiaye, 2025-04-15 Like Mahatma Gandhi Martin Luther King Jr and Nelson Mandela Shaykh Ahmadu Bamba MBack was a leader of his time championing non violence and pioneering decolonization through the Murid project which was a Sufi religious dimension and a deconstruction of colonial and local psychic alienation Cheikh M Ndiaye's Ahmadu Bamba and Decolonization The Power of Faith and Self Reliance examines Bamba's legacy as a man of unshakable faith a humanist a socio cultural reformer and a key agent in the decolonization of minds and spaces Ndiaye shows how Bamba distinguished himself from the violence around him by choosing nonviolent forms of resistance such as founding and marking new villages with original signs revaluing the local Wolof language inspiring self reliance and preaching about khidma service Providing historical background on Senegambia and the history of Islam in the area this book examines Bamba's actions and legacy through an interdisciplinary lens to show how the Sufi leader challenged established power structures including local African aristocratic states Islamist jihadism and French colonialism
