

Issues in Sales Taxation

- Services initially exempt from taxation for administrative reasons
- As services command more and more of consumption, states in financial crisis forced to consider taxing services
- Aging population can adversely affect states' sales tax revenue while services exempt
  - As percentage of population over 65 increases, consumption more weighted to services, pharmaceuticals, etc., now exempt
- Most states do not tax purchases by government agencies and nonprofits
- E-commerce presents challenges in state sales taxation
