Sales Edith R. Warkentine,2011 This book uses samples of sales contracts and problems drawn from actual case files to engage students in the role of a lawyer involved in a sales transaction It is aimed at upper division students who are tired of reading and briefing cases and are interested in what lawyers really do The text includes more narrative discussion than many texts so students do not have to struggle to learn the basic rules. Instead, students can focus on developing proficiency in reading statutes and solving problems. Students use cases the way lawyers use cases to solve problems. The problems in this text are somewhat more complex than those found in most teaching texts. This book is unique due to its emphasis on deconstructing statutes and using a variety of visual aids to help students become experts in the application of the law to facts to solve a problem. In particular, it uses numerous diagrams to help students deconstruct statutes and to help students organize their analysis of sales problems. This book is part of the Context and Practice Series edited by Michael Hunter Schwartz, Professor of Law and Dean of the University of Arkansas at Little Rock Bowen School of Law. The 2013 supplement to Sales A Context and Practice Casebook is available to professors upon adoption of this book. The supplement includes additional problems, tables, and errata based on students in class engagement with Sales, as well as three new practice exams. If you have adopted the book for a course, contact mjones@capress.com to request the supplement. Please include in the email the school and name of the course for which you have adopted this book.
