For Goodness' Sake: Principles of an Ecotheology Robert Cuttino, 2014-10-23 There seems to be a huge disconnect between religion and the environment In For Goodness Sake Principles of an Ecotheology author Robert Cuttino challenges hyperindividualized self absorbed contemporary theology that insists on our favored status He proposes an ecotheology Cuttino considers among other things that individuals are not the greatest good despite what we might think He shows we may be in fact secondary in importance to the health of all environmental systems that make life possible And individual humans are likely second in importance to the health of those economic systems that provide decent livelihoods and quality of life to all Readers will also learn why just greening the Bible will not work For Goodness Sake Principles of an Ecotheology isn't only about what will not work Cuttino shows that especially for restoring the health of the most important system of all the ethical sphere there may be an imperative for Christianity
