Nature And Madness:

Nature and Madness Paul Shepard, 1998 Through much of history our relationship with the earth has been plagued by ambivalence we not only enjoy and appreciate the forces and manifestations of nature we seek to plunder alter and control them Here Paul Shepard uncovers the cultural roots of our ecological crisis and proposes ways to repair broken bonds with the earth our past and nature Ultimately encouraging he notes There is a secret person undamaged in every individual We have not lost and cannot lose the genuine impulse Nature and Madness , Through much of history our relationship with the earth has been plagued by ambivalence we not only enjoy and appreciate the forces and manifestations of nature we seek to plunder alter and control them Here Paul Shepard uncovers the cultural roots of our ecological crisis and proposes ways to repair broken bonds with the earth our past and nature Ultimately encouraging he notes There is a secret person undamaged in every individual We have not lost and cannot lose the genuine impulse The Love of Nature and the End of the World Shierry Weber NicholSEN, 2003-02-28 A psychological exploration of how the love of nature can coexist in our psyches with apathy toward environmental destruction Virtually everyone values some aspect of the natural world Yet many people are surprisingly unconcerned about environmental issues treating them as the province of special interest groups Seeking to understand how our appreciation for the beauty of nature and our indifference to its destruction can coexist in us Shierry Weber NicholSEN explores dimensions of our emotional experience with the natural world that are so deep and painful that they often remain unspoken The Love of Nature and the End of the World is a gathering of meditations and collages Its evocations of our emotional attachment to the natural world and the emotional impact of environmental deterioration are meant to encourage individual and collective reflection on a difficult dilemma NicholSEN draws on work in environmental philosophy and ecopsychology the writings of psychoanalytic thinkers such as Wilfred Bion Donald Meltzer and D W Winnicott and ideas from Buddhist and Sufi traditions She shows how our emotional responses to the vulnerabilities of the natural world range from intense caring and compassion through grief and outrage to diffuse depression Individual chapters focus on silence and the process whereby we move from the unspoken to the spoken the love of nature the perceptual reciprocity with the natural world to which we might mature beauty in the human and natural realms the psychological impact of the destruction of the natural world and reflections on the future Lectures on the Morbid Anatomy, Nature, and Treatment, of Acute and Chronic Diseases, Delivered in the Theatre of Anatomy, Webb Street by the Late John Armstrong John Armstrong, 1837 The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures Beatriz Rivera-Barnes, 2020-12-16 The Nature of Hate and the Hatred of Nature in Hispanic Literatures retraces the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature from the earliest traditions of Western literature including Biblical texts Medieval Spanish literature early Spanish Renaissance texts to nineteenth and twentieth century Iberian and Latin American literatures The nature of hate is neither hate in its weakened form as in disliking or loving less nor hate in its righteous form as in I hate hatred rather hate in its primal form as told and conveyed in so many culturally influential Bible stories that are at the root of hatred as it manifests itself today The hatred of nature is not only contempt for the natural world but also the idea of nature hating in return thus inspiring even more hatred of nature While some chapters such as the one dedicated to La Celestina focus more on the nature of hate and the hatred of love they do address the hatred of nature as when Celestina conjures Pluto who happens to be closer to nature than to Satan Other chapters such as the ones dedicated to the Latin American novels set in the jungle focus more on the hatred of nature but ultimately turn to the nature of hatred by analyzing hatred and the descent into madness In the final chapters Beatriz Rivera Barnes simultaneously addresses the nature of hatred and the hatred of nature as well as the ecophilia ecophobia debate in twentieth century Latin American literatures and considers if not an assimilation of hate possibly the cannibalizing of hate Nature and Society in Historical Context Mikulas Teich,Roy Porter,Bo Gustafsson,1997-02-13 A collection of essays describing the historical connection between nature and society

Understanding Foucault, Understanding Modernism David Scott,2017-02-23 Michel Foucault remains to this day a thinker who stands unchallenged as one of the most important of the 20th century Among the characteristics that have made him influential is his insistent blurring of the border separating philosophy and literature and art carried out on the basis of his confronting the problem of modernism which he characterizes as a permanent task To that end even his most explicitly historical or strictly epistemological and methodological enquiries which on their surface would seem not to have anything to do with literature are full of allusions to modernist writers and artists like Mallarme Baudelaire Artaud Klee Borges Broch sometimes fleetingly sometimes more extensively as is the case with Foucault s life long devotion to Bataille Klossowski Blanchot and de Sade Understanding Foucault Understanding Modernism shows on the one hand that literature and the arts play a fundamental structural role in Foucault s works while on the other hand it shifts to the foreground what it presumes to be motivating Foucault the interrogation of the problem of modernism From Violence to Speaking Out Leonard Lawlor,2016-08-30 Drawing on a career long exploration of 1960s French philosophy Leonard Lawlor seeks a solution to the problem of the worst violence The worst violence is the reaction of total apocalypse without remainder it is the reaction of complete negation and death it is nihilism Lawlor argues that it is not just transcendental violence that must be minimised all violence must itself be reduced to its lowest level He offers new ways of speaking to best achieve the least violence which he creatively appropriates from Foucault Derrida and Deleuze and Guattari as speaking freely speaking distantly and speaking in tongues Maladie Mentale Et Psychologie Michel Foucault,1987-01-01 Analyzes the specifics of mental illness and the forms attributed to it by psychology and determines the social conditions that define the status of mental illness

Reasoning With Who We Are Mark Redhead, 2014-04-04 Public reasoning a manner of democratic deliberation that can generate meaningful conceptions of justice the collective good and other unifying political values among individuals subscribing to varied and contrasting doctrines has been a perennial concern among political philosophers from historical thinkers such as Immanuel Kant to contemporary theorists like John Rawls and Jurgen Habermas In this ambitious study Mark Redhead explores versions of public reasoning in the works of six of the most important voices in contemporary political theory Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Hannah Arendt Seyla Benhabib Michel Foucault and William E Connolly He identifies an important but as of yet unappreciated version of public reasoning one that provides creative and effective responses to questions at the forefront of liberal democratic political thought human rights secularity and global governance
