

Upon the page, our love story was penned,
In ink of passion, words entwined in bliss.
But tales of heartbreak, on the wind, they send,
A narrative lost, sealed with a traitor's kiss.

The prose of us, once vibrant, now turned dull,
Our chapters ending in a silent scream.
No more to write, the poet's quill has culled,
Our love, a language, lost in translation's stream.
Yet still, I hold the book within my grasp,
Its pages worn from all the times I've read.

In every line, a memory to clasp,
Of all the love, and all the tears we've shed.
Though gone, you linger in the words, my dear,
A broken heart, but love forever clear.
