Avijit Ghosh, 2025-10-07 Why Does Truth Hurt First falls within Philosophy Ethics Personal Growth In thirty chapters it examines why honesty often feels painful before it heals The book reveals how truth shatters illusions challenges ego and ultimately leads to strength and liberation Perfect for leaders thinkers and seekers it teaches how to embrace reality with courage and transform discomfort into growth A guide for those ready to live authentically

In Our Own Image Wesley J. Wildman, 2017-12-15 In Our Own Image is a work of comparative philosophical theology It is a study of the roles anthropomorphism and apophaticism play in the construction of conceptual models of ultimate reality Leading scholar Wesley J Wildman considers whether we create our ideas of God He offers a comparative analysis of three major classes of ultimacy models paying particular attention to the way those classes are impacted by anthropomorphism while tracing their relative strengths and weaknesses Wildman provides a constructive theological argument on behalf of an apophatic understanding of ultimate reality showing how this understanding subsumes challenges and relates ultimacy models from the three classes being compared He describes and compares competing ultimacy models fairly and sympathetically The conclusion is that all models cognitively break on the shoals of ultimate reality but that the ground of being class of models carries us further than the others in regard to the comparative criteria that matter most

New Sincerity Adam Kelly, 2024-10-08 The years 1989 2008 were an era of neoliberal hegemony in US politics economy and culture Post 45 scholar Adam Kelly argues that American novelists who began their careers during these years specifically the post baby boom generation of writers born between the late 1950s and early 1970s responded to the times by developing in their fiction an aesthetics of sincerity How and in what way these writers ask can you mean what you say and avow what you feel when what you say and feel can be bought and sold on the market What is authentic art in a historical moment when the artist has become a model for neoliberal subjectivity rather than its negation Through six chapters focused on key writers of the period including Susan Choi Helen DeWitt Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers George Saunders Dana Spiotta Colson Whitehead and David Foster Wallace the book explores these central questions while intervening critically in a set of debates in contemporary literary studies concerning aesthetics economy gender race class and politics Offering the capstone articulation of a set of influential arguments made by the author over a decade and more New Sincerity constitutes a field defining account of a period that is simultaneously recent and historically bound and of a generation of writers who continue to shape the literary landscape of the present
