

"While the escape from everyday responsibility into total nihilistic freedom may seem a fantasy to some readers, Sam Ligon's heroes find no relief in their double lives. Fully imagined and fluent, Safe in Heaven Dead is a strong and promising debut."

Modernism Albert Gelpi, 2015-03-09 Albert Gelpi's American Poetry after Modernism is a study of sixteen major American poets of the postwar period from Robert Lowell to Adrienne Rich. Gelpi argues that a distinctly American poetic tradition was solidified in the later half the twentieth century thus severing it from British conventions. The Ladies' Repository, 1858

The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion. Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews. Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr. By 1851 each issue published a piece of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits. When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000. Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family. After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository. The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart. Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own. Cf American periodicals 1741-1900.

Will Toby Litt find the perfect pencil sharpener? Will everyone he loves make it through the year? And will he be the same person at the end of it? Blending fact and fiction invention and memoir with joyful creativity and remarkable ambition A Writer's Diary is a year in a life and a life in a year.

The Vital Dead Alison Bell, Alison, Kay Bell, 2022. This book builds on recent anthropological work to explore the social and cultural dynamics of cemetery practice and its transformation over generations in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley. Anthropologist Alison Bell finds that people are using material culture images and epitaphs on grave markers as well as objects they leave on graves to assert and maintain relationships and fight against alienation. She draws on fieldwork interviews archival sources and disciplinary insights to show how cemeteries both reveal and participate in the grassroots cultural work of crafting social connections.
