The PTSD Workbook Mary Beth Williams,Soili Poijula,2013-04-01 Post traumatic stress disorder PTSD is an extremely debilitating anxiety condition that can occur after exposure to a terrifying event or ordeal Although many know that this mental health issue affects veterans of war many may not know that it also affects victims of domestic violence sexual violence natural disasters crime car accidents and accidents in the workplace No matter the cause of their illness people with PTSD will often relive their traumatic experience in the form of flashbacks memories nightmares and frightening thoughts This is especially true when they are exposed to events or objects that remind them of their trauma Left untreated PTSD can lead to emotional numbness insomnia addiction anxiety depression and even suicide In The PTSD Workbook Second Edition psychologists and trauma experts Mary Beth Williams and Soili Poijula outline techniques and interventions used by PTSD experts from around the world to offer trauma survivors the most effective tools available to conquer their most distressing trauma related symptoms whether they are a veteran a rape survivor or a crime victim Based in cognitive behavioral therapy CBT the book is extremely accessible and easy to use offering evidence based therapy at a low cost This new edition features chapters focusing on veterans with PTSD the link between cortisol and adrenaline and its role in PTSD and overall mental health and the mind body component of PTSD This book is designed to arm PTSD survivors with the emotional resilience they need to get their lives back together after a traumatic event

Location, Space and Place in Religious Education Martin Rothgangel, Kerstin von Brömssen, Hans-Günter Heimbrock, Geir Skeie, 2017 People form attachments to their home their neighbourhood and environment to the region and nation to which they belong They express feelings about space and place especially so in globalized times In religious studies in theology and in education there is a growing interest in spatial theories either as constructed within national borders or within international and transnational spaces The spatial turn has become an acknowledged term in interdisciplinary discourses Although every practice of religious education is situated and contextually dependent religious education RE research until now has not systematically paid attention to this fundamental insight This volume is devoted specifically to clarifying the close relationship between RE practice and spatial and situational conditions After clarifying the main concepts in Part 1 Part 2 includes chapters related to classroom studies while Part 3 focuses on studies about teachers of religious education Part 4 contains studies beyond the classroom such as school chapels churches and inner space All contributions to this volume were developed in the context of the European Network for Religious Education through Contextual Approaches ENRECA which has focused recently on the central issue of space and place

The Locations of Composition Christopher J. Keller, Christian R. Weissner, 2007-07-05 The Locations of Composition examines how spaces places and locations define problematize and shape composition studies From a wide variety of perspectives including critical theory rhetoric cultural geography genre theory postcolonial studies and media studies the contributors explore the disciplinary boundaries and authority of composition studies how teachers of writing can engage students in more place centered pedagogies and how compositionists can sort through the often hidden and intricate relationships between and among composition's places The book reveals the complex ways that places are central to the field's history identity and ability to move and change

Digest of the United States Supreme Court Reports, 1928 Theatre and Internationalization Ulrike Garde, John R. Severn, 2020-10-29 Theatre and Internationalization examines how internationalization affects the processes and aesthetics of theatre and how this art form responds dramatically and thematically to internationalization beyond the stage With central examples drawn from Australia and Germany from the 1930s to the present day the book considers theatre and internationalization through a range of theoretical lenses and methodological practices including archival research aviation history theatre historiography arts policy organizational theory language analysis academic practitioner insights and literary textual studies While drawing attention to the ways in which theatre and internationalization might be contributing productively to each other and to the communities in which they operate it also acknowledges the limits and problematic aspects of internationalization Taking an unusually wide approach to theatre the book includes chapters by specialists in popular commercial theatre disability theatre Indigenous performance theatre by and for refugees and other migrants young people as performers opera and operetta and spoken art theatre An excellent resource for academics and students of theatre and performance studies especially in the fields of spoken theatre opera and operetta studies and migrant theatre Theatre and Internationalization explores how theatre shapes and is shaped by international flows of people funds practices and works "Who Set You Flowin'?" Farah Jasmine Griffin,1996-09-26

Twentieth century America has witnessed the most widespread and sustained movement of African Americans from the South to urban centers in the North Who Set You Flowin examines the impact of this dislocation and urbanization identifying the resulting Migration Narratives as a major genre in African American cultural production Griffin takes an interdisciplinary approach with readings of several literary texts migrant correspondence painting photography rap music blues and rhythm and blues From these various sources Griffin isolates the tropes of Ancestor Stranger and Safe Space which though common to all Migration Narratives vary in their portrayal She argues that the emergence of a dominant portrayal of these tropes is the product of the historical and political moment often challenged by alternative portrayals in other texts or artistic forms as well as intra textually Richard Wright's bleak yet cosmopolitan portraits were countered by Dorothy West's longing for Black Southern communities Ralph Ellison while continuing Wright's vision reexamined the significance of Black Southern culture Griffin concludes with Toni Morrison embracing the South as a site of African American history and culture a place to be redeemed Black Space Sherry L. Deckman,2022-01-14

Protests against racial injustice and anti Blackness have swept across elite colleges and universities in recent years exposing systemic racism and raising questions about what it means for Black students to belong at these institutions In Black Space Sherry L Deckman takes us into the lives of the members of the Kuumba Singers a Black student organization at Harvard with racially diverse members and a self proclaimed safe space for anyone but particularly Black students Uniquely focusing on Black students in an elite space where they are the majority Deckman provides a case study in how colleges and universities might reimagine safe spaces Through rich description and sharing moments in students everyday lives Deckman demonstrates the possibilities and challenges Black students face as they navigate campus culture and the refuge they find in this organization This work illuminates ways administrators faculty student affairs staff and indeed students themselves might productively address issues of difference and anti Blackness for the purpose of fostering critically inclusive campus environments Fear in Front of the Screen Maya Götz,Dafna

Lemish,Andrea Holler,2019-01-17 Experiencing fear in front of the screen is a common phenomenon in childhood and a focus of public concern Yet research has encountered ethical and methodological challenges and has focused largely on the effects of watching disturbing news In this innovative book this universal experience is investigated in depth via two complementary studies 1 a retrospective study of experiences related by 626 undergraduate students from eight countries and 2 a study of the current nightmares induced by watching television of 510 children in five countries The results presented in this book highlight the most common elements of fear in front of the screen more generally followed by a focused analysis of the unique features of fear that characterize different developmental stages pre school middle childhood pre teens and teenagers The rich descriptions distinguish between the negative experiences of fear versus the positive experiences of thrill and explores gender and cultural differences Finally the book offers implications for media producers and policy makers as well as for parents and educators
