Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 Plays from the Cynical Life August Strindberg, 1983 The plays in this volume are one act dramas based on human situations as conceived and interpreted by Strindberg at a time when he was convinced human beings are essentially selfish self centered creatures All of them have been presented successfully in Swedish and other Scandinavian theaters The situations are surely typical people's willingness to claim credit for a fellow human being s success a mother's manipulation of her daughter's life a wife s inddifference to her mate except when others obviously wan him denigration of a mate for one s own purposes indifference to rationalization of one s sins playing with one s own and others emotions and the unhesitant destruction of a fellow human being at least partly in the name of religion Written toward the end of his pre Inferno period Strindberg labelled these plays one acters out of cynical life En aktare Ur det chniska livet Translations of two other plays The Stronger and The Bond which belong to this group were included in Pre Inferno Plays University of Washington Press 1970 In translating these plays Walter Johnson has presented American versions faithful to the original and expressed in languages as idiomatic and natural as the original Swedish University of California Union Catalog of Monographs Cataloged by the Nine Campuses from 1963 Through 1967: Subjects University of California (System). Institute of Library Research, University of California, Berkeley, 1972 The Book Exchange ,1958 Scandinavian Studies ,1959 Includes proceedings of the society American-Scandinavian Review ,1963 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries, 1979 Library of Congress Catalogs An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: The plays Michael Library of Congress, 1960 Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
