Saharan Boy:

Saharan Boy Richard Bellamy, 2002-11-01 NULL Young People's Daily Mobilities in Sub-Saharan Africa Gina Porter, Kate Hampshire, Albert Abane, Alister Munthali, Elsbeth Robson, Mac Mashiri, 2016-11-26 This book explores the daily mobilities and immobilities of children and young people in sub-Saharan Africa. The authors draw on findings from rural and urban field research extending over many years culminating in a 24 site study across three African countries: Ghana, Malawi and South Africa. Wider reflections on gender relationality, the politics of mobility and field methodology frame the study. By bringing together diverse strands of a complex daily mobilities picture from journeys for education, work, play, leisure and health to associated experiences of different transport modes, road safety and the virtual mobility now afforded by mobile phones, the book helps fill a knowledge gap with crucial significance for development policy and practice. Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1972 A Son of the Sahara Louise Gerard, 2021-04-25 In A Son of the Sahara Louise Gerard immerses readers in the stark yet profound landscapes of the Sahara Desert, weaving a rich tapestry of personal discovery and cultural dialogue. Through lyrical prose, Gerard explores themes of identity, belonging and resilience against the backdrop of breathtaking vistas and the harsh realities of desert life. The narrative combines elements of magical realism with a poignant coming-of-age story, reflecting both the geographical and emotional landscapes that shape the protagonist's journey toward self-understanding. Gerard's nuanced character development is emblematic of contemporary literature's exploration of place and its profound impact on the human experience. Louise Gerard, known for her sensitivity to diverse cultures and her deep appreciation for the natural world, draws on her extensive travels and personal experiences in North Africa to craft this evocative narrative. With a background in anthropology, she adeptly intertwines historical and cultural insights, offering a perspective that honors the complexities of life in desert communities. These elements fuel her exploration of existential questions as she deftly examines the relationships between individuals and their environments. A Son of the Sahara is a compelling read for those who seek an exploration of identity amid the vastness of the human experience. Gerard's evocative storytelling invites readers to lose themselves in its pages, prompting reflections on their own journeys and the cultures that shape them. This book will resonate with fans of literary fiction who appreciate the intersection of place and personal narrative. Mathematics Teaching and Professional Learning in sub-Saharan Africa Kakoma Luneta, 2021-12-09 The book represents a crop of wide-ranging research conducted by renowned scholars in sub-Saharan Africa revolving around mathematics teaching and professional development programs for mathematics teachers. The research-based proposals and actual how-to conduct professional development initiatives that enhance effective mathematics instruction are rooted in teacher input and informed by learners' errors and misconceptions. The book provides a comprehensive snapshot on mathematics teaching, learning and effective professional development programmes for mathematics teachers in sub-Saharan Africa. It is the only research output that advances and disseminates issues of mathematics education and research in the region with input from South Africa Kenya Rwanda Uganda Malawi Namibia Lesotho Ethiopia and Zimbabwe Sierra Leone International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2020-04-17 This Selected Issues paper on Sierra Leone shows that boosting education and its quality for all children yields substantial macroeconomic gains While investments in the sector will take time to yield results the potential gains provide ample motivation for sustained multi pronged policy interventions along the lines highlighted in the following paragraphs Equalizing access to education emerges as a critical goal for prosperity that is shared fairly across the population Attaining free secondary education for all is a critical long run objective With limited fiscal space and vast challenges in the sector evidence based prioritizing sequencing and targeting of policies is critical Careful monitoring of education spending and its impacts will help reassess programs and priorities going forward Enhancing the governance of the sector to ensure that spending is well aligned with needs in the various levels is also important Tackling the education challenge will require coordinated work to overcome hurdles in several sectors Several factors currently within and beyond the education sector constrain efforts that could effectively reap the economic benefits from education The results indicate the macroeconomic benefits of education could be substantial in the order of up to 40 percent of gross domestic product in the long run Sahara and Sudan: Kavar, Bornu, Kanem, Borku, Enned Gustav Nachtigal,1971 Intransitive Predication Leon Stassen,2003 This book investigates cross linguistic variation in one of the core domains of all natural languages Leon Stassen views this domain as a cognitive space the topography of which is the same for all languages It is assumed to consist of four subdomains which correspond to a four way distinction between the semantic classes of event predicates property predicates class predicates and locational predicates The book offers a typology of the structural manifestations of this domain in terms of the nature and number of the formal strategies used in its encoding The author disusses a number of abstract principles which can be employed in explaining the cross linguistic variation emodied by the typology In the final chapter he brings together the research results in a universally applicable model which can be read as a flow chart for the encoding of intransitive predications in different language types The Book of Lists David Wallechinsky,Amy D. Invoking the Invisible in the Sahara Erin Pettigrew, 2023-01-26 In this innovative new history Erin Pettigrew utilizes invisible forces and entities esoteric knowledge and spirits to show how these forms of knowledge and unseen forces have shaped social structures religious norms and political power in the Saharan West Situating this ethnographic history in what became la Mauritanie under French colonial rule and later the Islamic Republic of Mauritania Pettigrew traces the changing roles of Muslim spiritual mediators and their Islamic esoteric sciences known locally as l j b over the long term history of the region By exploring the impact of the immaterial in the material world and demonstrating the importance of Islamic esoteric sciences in Saharan societies she illuminates peoples enduring reliance upon these sciences in their daily lives and argues for a new approach to historical research that takes the immaterial seriously

Boys to Men in the Shadow of AIDS A. Simpson, 2009-04-26 This ethnography charts the lives of mission educated men in Zambia and their search for meaning in the AIDS pandemic as well as their responses to prevention and HIV testing It also suggests how hegemonic masculinities may begin to be re figured and gender relationships redesigned

International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook

Through Spain to the Sahara Matilda Betham-Edwards, 2019-12-18 In Through Spain to the Sahara Matilda Betham Edwards crafts a vivid travelogue that intertwines personal reflections with keen observations of the landscapes cultures and peoples she encounters The book is suffused with a lyrical prose style rich in descriptive detail and imbued with the romantic sensibilities of the late 19th century Betham Edwards navigates the historical and cultural tapestry of Spain and North Africa offering readers a nuanced portrayal of the regions through a pioneering female perspective which was notably rare at the time of publication Matilda Betham Edwards was an influential Victorian author whose extensive travels informed her writing As a woman navigating the societal constraints of her era her journeys across Europe and into North Africa became a means of both personal exploration and social commentary Her experiences profoundly shaped her narratives leading her to capture not only the physical landscapes but also the shifting cultural dynamics of a post colonial world a theme that resonates throughout this work Through Spain to the Sahara is a compelling read for those intrigued by travel literature and historical insights Betham Edwards keen observations and evocative style offer valuable perspectives on cultural encounters making this book an essential addition for readers who appreciate the intersection of travel and literary artistry
