Underhill,1956 Sail Training and Cadet Ships, Etc Harold Alonso UNDERHILL,1956 Transition to Eminence G. M. Hiranandani,2005 This volume of the navy s history covers the period from 1976 to 1990 It examines the navy s success in keeping abreast of advances in technology in step with progressive self reliance In a decade and a half of innovation the navy equipped its indigenously built frigates corvettes and other vessels with combinations of the latest available weapons and equipment from the Soviet Union from Europe and from indigenous sources A tiny ship design cell which in 1965 was designing yard craft was by 1990 designing an aircraft carrier submarines and missile destroyers The new acquisitions from the Soviet Union ranged from missile destroyers conventional submarines and long range reconnaissance aircraft to minesweepers All these high tech inductions needed to be operated and manned by better educated and better trained personnel New maintenance repair and refit facilities had to be created The increase in the volume of spares and the diversity of sources compelled modernization of the logistics system This volume analyzes how these problems were tackled

Shipping Register ,1929 Bullen's Voyages Alston Kennerley,2022-09-22 Frank Bullen burst on the national and international popular literary scene at the end of the nineteenth century like a supernova which shone for the first decade or so of the next century and then was gone But the memory of that brilliance lasts like his fictional whaling epic The Cruise of the Cachalot into the present this is a book still in print in any number of editions Bullen s Voyages is a long overdue tribute to that memory focusing on the sea career which is so prominent in his writing Of the era of his youth he wrote that those were the days when boys in Geordie colliers or East Coast fishing smacks were often beaten to insanity and jumped overboard or were done to death in truly savage fashion and all that was necessary to account for their non returning was a line in the log to the effect that they had been washed or had fallen overboard It was a brutal world and a close examination of maritime records shows that the bullying two shipwrecks and the tropical illnesses he describes so vividly really occurred before he was even fifteen and those were just the start Hardly a voyage passes without similar dramatic episodes But disentangling truth from fiction is not always easy At one level The Cruise of the Cachalot is undoubtedly fiction and there are unanswered questions about his young life as a street arab as he once described himself Yet Rudyard Kipling could write in 1898 of Cachalot it is immense I ve never read anything that equals it such real and new sea pictures Though Bullen conceals the names of several of his ships this new biography reveals their real identities while the author carefully distinguishes the fact and the fiction through his sea going career Bullen who wrote more than thirty books is second to none in his remarkable writing about the days of sail and the lives of merchant seafarers A literary commentator writing in 1917 two years after his death asserted Perhaps no writer has ever written so graphically or so sympathetically of the trials and dangers incurred by our merchant sailors than Frank Bullen and his books today are a living witness to the courage and loyalty of our mercantile marine This elegant and highly readable biography is the first to describe his extraordinary life and Bullen s own vivid writing colors every page Bulletin - U.S. Coast Guard Academy Alumni Association United States Coast Guard Academy.
