Sailing On Friday:

Things I Wish I'd Known Before I Started Sailing, Expanded and Updated John Vigor, 2020-06-01 John Vigor knows a thing or two about sailing. He's been at it for decades in sailboats of all kinds, racing, he's a national champion, cruising, he has tens of thousands of miles of blue water crossings and generally messing about. There is no place he'd rather be. John Vigor knows a thing or two about writing as well. A journalist by trade, he was a reporter, columnist, and editor, and he's written more than a few best-selling books about sailing. Things I Wish I'd Known Before I Started Sailing is a gift, a blessing for sailors of all stripes, a condensation of all he has learned over the years. Aimed at sailboat owners of all kinds, this reference book contains 200 entries packed with solid practical advice and valuable tips. Each entry is categorized alphabetically and prefaced by an arresting statement such as "People always lie about how fast their boats are." The reference format offers readers the opportunity to open the book at any page and browse endlessly. A comprehensive appendix covers some 50 technical topics. Here's a small taste, but look inside for the full banquet. Don't waste your money on high-powered binoculars. Inflatable dinghies aren't all that good. Don't delude yourself: there is no perfect boat. Legends and Superstitions of the Sea and of Sailors in All Lands and at All Times Fletcher Stewart Bassett, 1885 Sailing the Seas James Baldwin, William Winfred Livengood, 1920 The Doomed Ship William Hurton, 2025-08-24 Reprint of the original first published in 1856. The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books. We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage.

Superstitions of Sailors Angelo Solomon Rappoport, 1928 The Fabled Coast Sophia Kingshill, The Estate of Jennifer Westwood, 2012-06-28 Pirates and smugglers, ghost ships and sea serpents, fishermen's prayers and sailors' rituals: the coastline of the British Isles plays host to an astonishingly rich variety of local legends, customs, and superstitions. In The Fabled Coast, renowned folklorists Sophia Kingshill and Jennifer Westwood gather together the most enthralling tales and traditions, tracing their origins and examining the facts behind the legends. Was there ever such a beast as the monstrous Kraken? Did a Welsh prince discover America centuries before Columbus? What happened to the missing crew of the Mary Celeste? Along the way, they recount the stories that are an integral part of our coastal heritage, such as the tale of Drake's Drum, said to be heard when England was in peril, and the mythical island of Hy-Brasil, which for centuries appeared on sea charts and maps to the west of Ireland. The result is an endlessly fascinating, often surprising journey through our island history. Why Sailors Can't Swim and Other Marvellous Maritime Curiosities Nic Compton, 2013-07-28 Why will a sailor never go to sea on Friday 13th? Why are boats always referred to as "she"? How do you navigate the ocean without a compass? Does the Bermuda Triangle really exist? Why do sailors wear earrings? Did Blackbeard actually exist? Did Nelson really say "Kiss me Hardy"? What's the correct way to bury a body at sea? Why is a rope never called a "rope"? This fascinating collection of maritime folklore and trivia delves into the history, science, and culture of the sea and is packed full of entertaining surprising and insightful facts from the delightfully obscure to the amusingly quaint including everyday expressions that have their origins on board ship Topics include sailors and superstitions ships and shipbuilding navigation and seamanship pirates and smugglers fish and fishermen coasts and oceans tides and weather art and literature of the sea     Sea Phantoms
