The People's Chef Ruth Brandon, 2009-05-26 During the first half of the 19th century Alexis Soyer became the most famous cook and man in London In addition to his kitchen inventions and best selling cookbooks Soyer was part of many of the great events and social changes of his time In her exciting biography of a culinary giant Ruth Brandon uses each phase of his legendary career to explore a different aspect of 19th century life including the destruction of the English peasantry the Irish potato famine and Britain's disastrous involvement in the Crimea Born in France Soyer moved to England in his teens and rose to early fame as head chef at London's Reform Club where he designed a kitchen so innovative that it became a tourist attraction He opened London's first French restaurant and was linked to some of the most famous actresses and dancers of the day Yet for all his flamboyance Soyer's fame lies in the work he did for those in need He wrote cookbooks for the poor and designed a model

soup kitchen during the Irish famine He traveled to the Crimea to manage the kitchens in Florence Nightingale's hospital and invented a battlefield cook stove that remained in use as recently as the Gulf War Soyer's influence remains today with three of his books still in print The People's Chef at long last pays tribute to this remarkable man who had such a profound effect on 19th-century society Enterprising Women Kit Candlin, Cassandra Pybus, 2015-01-15 In the Caribbean colony of Grenada in 1797 Dorothy Thomas signed the manumission documents for her elderly slave Betty Thomas owned dozens of slaves and was well on her way to amassing the fortune that would make her the richest black resident in the nearby colony of Demerara What made the transaction notable was that Betty was Dorothy Thomas's mother and that fifteen years earlier Dorothy had purchased her own freedom and that of her children Although she was just one remove from bondage Dorothy Thomas managed to become so rich and powerful that she was known as the Queen of Demerara Dorothy Thomas's story is but one of the remarkable accounts of pluck and courage recovered in Enterprising Women As the microbiographies in this book reveal free women of color in Britain's Caribbean colonies were not merely the dependent concubines of the white male elite as is commonly assumed In the capricious world of the slave colonies during the age of revolutions some of them were able to rise to dizzying heights of success These highly entrepreneurial women exercised remarkable mobility and developed extensive commercial and kinship connections in the metropolitan heart of empire while raising well educated children who were able to penetrate deep into British life Slum Tourism Fabian Frenzel, Ko Koens, Malte Steinbrink, 2012 This multidisciplinary collection is unique both in its conceptual and empirical breadth My Trade Andrew Marr, 2009-09-18 How do you decide what is a story and what isn't What does a newspaper editor actually do all day How do hacks get their scoops How do the TV stations choose their news bulletins How do you persuade people to say those awful embarrassing things Who earns what How do journalists manage to look in the mirror after the way they sometimes behave The purpose of this insider's account is to provide an answer to all these questions and more My Trade Andrew Marr's brilliant and brilliantly funny book is a guide to those of us who read newspapers or who listen to and watch news bulletins but want to know more Andrew Marr tells the story of modern journalism through his own experience This is an extremely readable and utterly unique modern social history of British journalism with all its odd glamour smashed hopes and future possibility
