Saltwater Women At Work:

Beckoned by the Sea Sylvia Taylor, 2017-06-07 A rich and diverse tapestry weaving together the many voices narratives skills and talents of women up and down the coastal Pacific Northwest who devote their lives and careers to the sea Beckoned by the Sea celebrates coastal women from northern BC to northern California who work on or with the sea The twenty four women featured in this inspiring and fascinating book represent a variety of industries from conservation commercial fishing and marine biology to safety and rescue tourism and the arts Weaving together elements of social history culture geography and environmentalism author Sylvia Taylor draws on in depth interviews meticulous research and her own experience as a deckhand on a commercial fishing boat Beckoned by the Sea investigates the myriad ways in which women have contributed to the marine industries that sustain the people and shape the culture of North America s west coast and reveals how the sea itself has touched the lives of these women by giving them not just a livelihood but an infinite source of inspiration and personal fulfillment

Saltwater City Paul Yee, 2009-12-01 Saltwater City pays tribute to those who went through the hard times to those who swallowed their pride to those who were powerless and humiliated but who still carried on They all had faith that things would be better for future generations They have been proven correct Canada s first Chinese arrived in British Columbia in 1858 from California Almost all mee merchants peasants and laborers and almost all from eight rural counties in the Pearl River delta in what is now Guangdong province they came in search of gold and better fortune escaping the rebellions flood and drought of their homeland By 1863 over 4 000 Chinese lived in B C filling jobs shunned by whites miners road builders teamsters laundry men restaurateurs domestic servants and cannery workers Between 1881 and 1885 thousands more arrived most imported to build the transcontinental railway They were to create in Vancouver Canada s largest and most dynamic Chinese Community known to its original inhabitants as Saltwater City

From Cabin 'Boys' to Captains Jo Stanley, 2016-04-04 Traditionally a woman s place was never on stormy seas But actually thousands of dancers purserettes doctors stewardesses captains and conductresses have taken to the waves on everything from floating palaces to battered windjammers Their daring story is barely known even by today s seawomen From before the 1750s women fancying an oceangoing life had either to disguise themselves as cabin boys or acquire a co operative husband with a ship attached Early pioneers faced superstition and discrimination in the briny monasteries Today women captain cruise ships as big as towns and work at the highest level in the global maritime industry This comprehensive exploration looks at the Merchant Navy comparing it to the Royal Navy in which Wrens only began sailing in 1991 Using a wide variety of interviews and sources Jo Stanley vividly reveals the incredible journey across time taken by these brave and lively women salts

The Research Imagination Paul S. Gray, John B. Williamson, David A. Karp, John R. Dalphin, 2007-08-13 The idea that science is a blueprint for research and imagination gives research its life and purpose inspired this comprehensive explanation of research methodology The authors decades of experience have revealed that research is a craft requiring judgment and creativity not simply memorization and application of the rules of science Whether one is conducting an intimate one on one interview or a large scale examination of an entire society human imagination and scientific principles of inquiry go hand in hand To that end this book emphasizes scientific method but also acknowledges its critics It covers a wide variety of data collection techniques but presents them as reinforcing rather than competing with one another thus striking a balance between qualitative and quantitative methods It is designed for students and instructors who want a comprehensive treatment of a variety of research techniques with special emphasis on qualitative approaches Red Flags and Lace

Coiffes Charles R. Menzies, 2011-01-01 Small scale family fishing enterprises manage to persist despite a range of difficult economic and ecological changes and disruptions Red Flags and Lace Coiffes is an ethnography that explores how and why family based fishing enterprises continue in the face of what seem to be overwhelming odds Using historical ethnography as a lens through which to understand how the fishers and their families of the Bigouden region in France have situated themselves over time Charles R Menzies argues that local identity plays an important role as global capitalist pressures force these fishing communities to reorganize or disappear entirely Throughout the book touches on key concepts such as identity culture globalization kinship work the environment and the economy Publisher's description Uppity Women We Are

Women and Feminism, 1996 Asthma in the Workplace, Fourth Edition Jean-Luc Malo, Moira Chan-Yeung, David I. Bernstein, 2013-05-10 Occupational factors are responsible for a large percentage of cases of asthma in adults of working age Any irritant generated at high concentrations can cause occupational asthma and early diagnosis is critical because cure is still possible at this stage This latest edition of Asthma in the Workplace reflects the rapid pace of discovery and research in workplace asthma that has taken place in recent years This Fourth Edition retains the international flavor of prior editions with contributions from editors and contributors from around the world Several chapters commence with clinical histories and workplace scenarios relevant to the focus of the chapter making it particularly germane for primary care providers to develop skills in early recognition of the disease Topics discussed include Definitions historical background epidemiology genetics pathophysiology and animal models Guidelines for assessing the worker and the workplace and proposed guidelines for management including compensation aspects Medicolegal aspects prevention and surveillance Detailed information about specific agents including a variety of high and low molecular weight agents Other types of work related asthma conditions such as irritant induced asthma eosinophilic bronchitis and occupational rhinitis This new edition has been significantly restructured and places a greater emphasis on the clinical aspects of management and treatment This heightened focus on practical considerations makes it a truly comprehensive hands on resource for practitioners and researchers in this fast moving field

Indigenous Research Knowledges and Their Place in the Academy Bindi Bennett, Kelly

Menzel, 2025-07-24 This book privileges Indigenous ways of knowing being and doing in research and serves as a voice in taking on some of the more marginal topics within methodologies It is significant in that it is written by indigenous scholars themselves The contributors shed light for example on Queer BlaQ bodies and place Indigenous women as central in reimagining fair academic practice others return to their foundational texts to reflect on the growth of Indigenous Standpoint Theory This book sees Indigenous Peoples as holding greater significance within research objectives and institutional practices and reimagines a research world embracing storytelling as foundational to academia It is intended for students and early researchers particularly Indigenous researchers whilst also serving as an invaluable textbook for non Indigenous people as it aids in explaining and outlining Indigenous research and is a valuable tool in the classroom and with research students It demonstrates that Indigenous research approaches can sit beside and be equal to Western research especially when engaging with the ethics process and for PhD students This book is invaluable for non Indigenous allies and researchers globally to further explain and outline Aboriginal Australian Indigenous research

Lions Sarah Keene Meltzoff, 2012-12-15 From the Galapagos to the depths of Patagonia and up along the stark desert coast of Chile Listening to Sea Lions empathic ethnography carries the reader directly into the heart of the ocean world of Latino coastal people Sea lions are the fellow denizens in nature who share the perpetual changes and are seen as metaphoric selves Meltzoff uses storytelling rather than explicit theory to help explain local struggles and survival strategies wrought by extreme El Niño events and shifting political climates Embedded within the six multi-sited ethnographies are global themes in coastal communities from boom and bust fisheries to the rivalries among fisheries tourism conservation interests The overall picture is sea change and impermanence as a local way of life by the ocean Women and Pressure Caroline E.

Fife, Marguerite St. Leger Dowse, 2010-01-01 Women and Pressure is a remarkable look at women's progress in the fields of diving and altitude With content ranging from the history of women divers combat pilots and astronauts to the unique physiological characteristics of females working and playing in altered barometric pressure environments this book is long overdue Featuring contributions from 35 authors many of whom are pioneers in their field it represents a wide range of disciplines and offers a comprehensive dialogue about the effects of pressure on women This book is a must read for women divers dive instructors men who dive with women and anyone involved in these fields As an admirable collection of the current research and attitudes regarding the most frequent concerns of divers instructors and aviators topics are explored on a level of seriousness and urgency The essays included in this text contain crucial discussions of such relevant factors as pregnancy the menstrual cycle and decompression illness decompression illness susceptibility compared with men fitness to dive thermal tolerance equipment legal issues and women in the workplace The pool of information in this book displays the serious nature of a text addressing the past present and future of issues of consequence in relation to the well-being of the women involved From the Foreword It is obviously important to have a good understanding of how women's physical and psychological responses might differ from those experienced by men I believe that this book is a scholarly attempt to answer these questions and I hope that it will make a valuable contribution to the health and welfare of women engaged in these highly specialized occupations HRH Prince Philip Duke of Edinburgh Over the years different data theories and hypotheses have been proffered but there has never been an authoritative compendium on these issues This is perhaps the only work in existence that in one place provides physicians physiologists and other interested dive and aerospace professionals with what is broadly known about the subject of women in diving and aerospace Karl Shreeves The Undersea Journal 2010 Proceeds from this book will go to the Diving Diseases Research Center to support further diving research Snug Harbor Cannery Katherine Johnson Ringsmuth, 2005 Contesting White Supremacy Timothy J. Stanley, 2011-01-17 In 1922-23 Chinese students in Victoria British Columbia went on strike to protest a school board's attempt to impose segregation Their resistance was unexpected and runs against the grain of mainstream accounts of Asian exclusion which tend to ignore the agency of the excluded In Contesting White Supremacy Timothy Stanley combines Chinese sources and perspectives with an innovative theory of racism and anti racism to explain the strike and construct an alternative reading of racism in British Columbia His work demonstrates that education was an arena in which white supremacy confronted Chinese nationalist schooling and where parents and students contested racism by constructing a new category Chinese Canadian to define their identity

Coastal Disaster Risk Management in Bangladesh Mahbuba Nasreen, Khondoker Mokaddem Hossain, Mohammed Moniruzzaman Khan, 2023-03-31 This book addresses disaster and disaster risk reduction DRR practices constraints and capacity in the context of coastal Bangladesh Located in the lower riparian of the Bay of Bengal Bangladesh has to face frequent disasters such as floods cyclones river erosion salinity intrusion as well as drought Drawing together a range of multidisciplinary perspectives Coastal Disaster Risk Management in Bangladesh explores the connection between climate change and DRR issues in this region The editors reorganize disaster studies around social and physical changes that can reduce these risks and put at risk populations on a stronger footing by making risk reduction the focus These include measures to improve disaster preparedness to boost recovery by creating better disaster planning and programs and physical and social initiatives to improve disaster resilience Also analyzing the gender perspective the volume also utilizes the local knowledge framework to consider whether these populations have resilient knowledge that needs to be incorporated into initiatives based on advanced technology and perspectives This book will be of interest to academics researchers students policymakers and practitioners in the field of disaster DRR and governance climate change climate change adaptation CCA and the environment

Transcultural Leadership Carmen Vazquez, George F Simons, Philip R Harris, 2012-08-21 Supervisors project managers and CEOs should find this book useful as it deals with an emerging global reality culturally diverse people of both genders in the workplace The new workplace environment demands that employees be selected evaluated and promoted on the basis of performance competency regardless of sex race religion or place of origin Focusing on workplace diversity instead of concepts of majority and minority allows managers to offer all personnel equal opportunities Affirmative action is now aimed at developing human potential Diversity is becoming a worldwide phenomenon Written from the North American viewpoint this book examines the key concepts that drive American plants and offices today which are likely to be realities overseas tomorrow and the concepts espoused in this book can be applied universally The book fills a gap in management education and development It is a practical manual designed to teach and encourage managers to lead and strengthen the human resources of an organization
