Lord Longford

Michael Wheatley

Lord Longford:

Lord Longford Peter Stanford, 1994 The Pursuit of the Heiress A. P. W. Malcomson, 2006 The Pursuit of the Heiress is a new greatly enlarged and more widely focused version of what the late Lawrence Stone described as a brilliant long essay or short book on the subject of the role of heiresses among the Irish aristocracy which was published by the Ulster Historical Foundation under the same title in 1982 and has long been out of print The new book comes to the same broad conclusions about heiresses namely that their importance as a means of enlarging the estates or retrieving the fortunes of their husbands has been much exaggerated This was because known heiresses were well protected by a variety of legal devices and in common with many aristocratic women of the day also had minds and strong preferences of their own which meant that they were not generally an object of deliberate or profitable pursuit The new book also ranges more widely than its central theme of heiresses and addresses other aspects of aristocratic marriage such as abductions elopements mesalliances the supposed rise of the affective family and the disadvantaged situation of even the richest and most privileged women in an age when both adultery and divorce were largely the prerogative of men Avowed Intent Frank Pakenham Earl of Longford, 1994-01-01 Frank Pakenham the 7th Earl of Longford was born in 1905 and is still an active figure in the affairs of the nation This book covers his political career as a Labour minister in the Attlee and Wilson governments his crusade against pornography and his campaign for penal reform The Outcasts' Outcast Peter Stanford, 2003 Biography of Lord Longford The English Reports: House of Lords (1677-1865), 1900 Calendar of House of Lords Manuscripts [1450-1678] Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 1877 ThirdWay, 1998-01 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Picture Profile of Lord Longford Frank Pakenham Earl of Longford, 1976 The Accountant Tax Supplement, 1928 Heroes and Contemporaries Jonathan Aitken, 2006-07-30 Heroes and Contemporaries is a book of profiles written with the author's personal insights anecdotes and judgments on fascinating public figures he encountered in life's journey Jonathan Aitken was for many years at the heart of British journalism and politics The early chapters here offer illuminating portraits of historical characters Aitken knew as a young man including Sir Winston Churchill Randolph Churchill and Lord Beaverbrook the author's great uncle who founded the Aitken dynasty of newspaper owners and politicians In his own career which took him through 23 years in the House of Commons to the Cabinet Aitken became close to some of the most intriguing figures in British politics including Harold Wilson Margaret Thatcher and her family and Michael Portillo all profiled in these pages Jonathan Aitken also enjoyed a colourful personal and business life which ranged wider than politics This is reflected in the chapters on Sir James Goldsmith John Aspinall and Sir Frank Williams During his prison sentence Aitken was visited by several of his subjects including Lord Longford and Nicky Gumbel The resulting mixture of these profiles makes a book attractively written biographical studies full of fresh perceptions and revealing stories Sourcebook of Canadian Media Law Robert Martin, Stuart

Nationalism and the Irish Party Michael Wheatley, 2005-02-17 John Redmond's constitutional parliamentary Irish Party went from dominating Irish politics to oblivion in just four years from 1914 1918 The goal of limited Home Rule peacefully achieved appeared to die with it Given the speed of the party's collapse its death has been seen as inevitable Though such views have been challenged there has been no detailed study of the Irish Party in the last years of union with Britain before the world war and the Easter Rising transformed Irish politics Through a study of five counties in provincial Ireland Leitrim Longford Roscommon Sligo and Westmeath that history has now been written Far from being rotten the Irish Party was representative of nationalist opinion and still capable of self renewal and change However the Irish nationalism at this time was also suffused with a fierce anglophobia and sense of grievance defined by its enemies which rapidly came to the fore first in the Home Rule crisis and then in the war Redmond's project the peaceful attainment of Home Rule simply could not be realised
