Lords Harvest And The Rural Church A New Look At Ministry In The Agri Culture:

Confessions of a Small Town Minister David John Ford, 2014-12-15 Ministry in a small town or rural context is challenging The minister and his or her family live in a fishbowl with every aspect of life under constant scrutiny In addition few seminaries or Christian colleges and universities offer courses preparing people for small town ministry Throw in limited resources and small town politics and you might begin to understand the struggle of Ben Wright minister in Madison Montana In a last ditch effort to find help before he quits ministry altogether Ben solicits the advice of another minister the aged and experienced Kain Hoddiss Ben and Kain undertake a journey of discovery as together they explore the joys and struggles of small town ministry

Everyone Must Eat Mark L. Yackel-Juleen, 2021-12-07 Rural contexts are often overlooked treated as flyover land But because everyone must eat rural communities and their work in food production are important to the whole of society Mark Yackel Juleen spent many years in rural ministry and is the founder and executive director of Shalom Hill Farm He offers valuable insight on the present issues of food production and environmental sustainability and connects it in profound and practical ways to the biblical and theological tradition The result is a clear set of powerful and actionable tools to help rural leaders and ministers address issues of sustainability and land use in their ministry Everyone Must Eat masterfully shows how one can integrate the sociology of community the secular realities of economics and public policy and the powerful presence of God's word in order to practice faithful leadership
