Afro-Uruguayan Literature Marvin A. Lewis, 2003 This is a continuing process to which the written record holds the key It has been common knowledge among literary historians that Afro Uruguayans published a number of periodicals beginning as early as 1872 It is only now however with recent discoveries in the National Library in Montevideo that the extent of this production has become evident It is primarily through these periodicals the focus here that much of the cultural legacy of Afro Uruguayans can be reconstructed BOOK JACKET The Crisis, 1956-05 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Synching the Americas Ryan Anthony Spangler, Georg Michael Schwarzmann, 2017-12-18 The essays in this collection reflect two of Mart s key observations during his time in the United States first how did he an exile living in New York view and read his North American neighbors from a sociocultural political and literary perspective Second how did his perception of the modern nation impact his own concepts of race capital punishment poetics and nation building for Cuba The overarching endeavor of this project is to view and read Mart with the same critical or modern eye with which he viewed and read Spain Cuba Latin America and the United States This volume combining many of the most relevant experts in the field of Mart studies attempts to answer those questions It hopes to broaden the understanding and extend the influence of one of Americas speaking of the collective Americas most prolific and important writers particularly within the very nation where his chronicles poetry and journalism were written In spite of the political differences still separating Cuba and the United States understanding Mart s relevancy is crucial to bridging the gap between these nations Cuban Literature in the Age of Black Insurrection Matthew Pettway, 2019-12-30 Juan

Francisco Manzano and Gabriel de la Concepci n Vald s Pl cido were perhaps the most important and innovative Cuban writers of African descent during the Spanish colonial era Both nineteenth century authors used Catholicism as a symbolic language for African inspired spirituality Likewise Pl cido and Manzano subverted the popular imagery of neoclassicism and Romanticism in order to envision black freedom in the tradition of the Haitian Revolution Pl cido and Manzano envisioned emancipation through the lens of African spirituality a transformative moment in the history of Cuban letters Matthew Pettway examines how the portrayal of African ideas of spirit and cosmos in otherwise conventional texts recur throughout early Cuban literature and became the basis for Manzano and Plcido's antislavery philosophy. The portrayal of African Atlantic religious ideas spurned the elite rationale that literature ought to be a barometer of highbrow cultural progress. Cuban debates about freedom and selfhood were never the exclusive domain of the white Creole elite. Pettway's emphasis on African inspired spirituality as a source of knowledge and a means to sacred authority for black Cuban writers deepens our understanding of Manzano and Plcido not as mere imitators but as aesthetic and political pioneers. As Pettway suggests, black Latin American authors did not abandon their African religious heritage to assimilate wholesale to the Catholic Church. By recognizing the wisdom of African ancestors they procured power in the struggle for black liberation.

Writing the Caribbean in Magazine Time Katerina Gonzalez Seligmann, 2021-08-27 This book demonstrates the material political and aesthetic dimensions of Pan Caribbean literary discourse in magazine texts by Suzanne and Aim Csaire, Nicol Guilln, Jos Lezama, Lima Alejo Carpentier, George Lamming, Derek Walcott and their contemporaries. Thus far, the canonical centrality of literary magazines to Caribbean literature, politics and social theory has been obscured. Up against the global book industry, Caribbean literary magazines have waged a guerrilla pursuit for the terms of Caribbean representation.

Cinema of Contradiction Sally Faulkner, 2006-02-22 A key decade in world cinema, the 1960s was also a crucial era of change in Spain. A Cinema of Contradiction, the first book to focus in depth on this period in Spain, analyses six films that reflect and interpret these transformations. The coexistence of traditional and modern values and the timid acceptance of limited change by Franco's authoritarian regime are symptoms of the uneven modernity that characterises the period. Contradiction, the unavoidable effect of that unevenness, is the conceptual terrain explored by these six filmmakers. One of the most significant movements of Spanish film history, the New Spanish Cinema, art films explore contradictions in their subject matter yet are themselves the contradictory products of the state's protection and promotion of films that were ideologically opposed to it. A Cinema of Contradiction argues for a new reading of the movement as a compromised yet nonetheless effective cinema of critique. It also demonstrates the possible contestatory value of popular films of the era, suggesting that they may similarly explore contradictions. This book therefore reveals the overlaps between art and popular film in the period and argues that we should see these as complementary rather than opposing areas of cinematic activity in Spain.

Music and Revolution Robin D. Moore, 2006-04-28 Annotation A history of Cuban music during the Castro regime, 1950s to the present.

A History of Argentine Literature Alejandra Laera, Mónica Szurmuk, 2024-05-16 Argentine Literature continues to figure prominently in academic programs in the English speaking world and it has an increasing presence in English translation in international prizes and trade journals. A History of Argentine Literature proposes a major reimagining of Argentine literature attentive to production in indigenous and migration languages and to current debates in Literary Studies. Panoramic in scope, and incisive in its in depth studies of authors works and theoretical problems this volume builds on available scholarship on canonical works but opens up the field to include a more diverse rendering as well as engaging with the full spectrum of textual interventions from travel writing to drama from popular gauchesca to celebrated avant guard works Working at the crossroads of disciplines languages and critical traditions this book accounts for the wealth of Argentine cultural production and maps the rich diverse and often overlooked history of Argentine literature
