Lost Geography A Novel:

Lost Geography Charlotte Bacon,2002-01-05 In this heartbreaking debut novel Bacon explores the transitions that 60 years visit upon the members of an unforgettable family a Saskatchewan woman her Scottish husband and their daughters who have migrated elsewhere The Scrap Book ,1908 Geographical Imaginations Indranil Acharya,Ujjwal Kumar Panda,2022 The book is aimed at providing a short introduction to the divergent ways in which space and place evince themselves in literature With suitable illustrations from some very well known canonical texts the book offers a brief survey of the possible ways of looking at the seemingly impossible relationship between Literature and Geography The Geography of Lost Things Jessica Brody,2018-10-02 In this romantic road trip story perfect for fans of Sarah Dessen and Morgan Matson a teen girl discovers the value of ordinary objects while learning to forgive her absent father A lot can happen on the road from lost to found Ali Collins doesn't have room in her life for clutter or complications So when her estranged father passes away and leaves her his only prized possession a 1968 Firebird convertible Ali knows she won't keep it Not when it reminds her too much of all her father's unfulfilled promises And especially not when a buyer three hundred miles up the Pacific coast is offering enough money for the car to save her childhood home from foreclosure There's only one problem though Ali has no idea how to drive a stick shift But her ex boyfriend Nico does The road trip gets off to a horrible start filled with unexpected detours roadblocks and all the uncomfortable tension that comes with being trapped in a car with your ex But when Nico starts collecting items from the quirky strangers they meet along the way Ali starts to sense that these objects aren't random Somehow they seem to be leading her to an unknown truth about her father A truth that will finally prove to Ali that some things even broken things are worth saving Handbook of the American Novel of the Twentieth and Twenty-First Centuries Timo Müller,2017-01-11 Increasing specialization within the discipline of English and American Studies has shifted the focus of scholarly discussion toward theoretical reflection and cultural contexts These developments have benefitted the discipline in more ways than one but they have also resulted in a certain neglect of close reading As a result students and researchers interested in such material are forced to turn to scholarship from the 1960s and 1970s much of which relies on dated methodological and ideological presuppositions The handbook aims to fill this gap by providing new readings of texts that figure prominently in the literature classroom and in scholarly debate from James's The Ambassadors to McCarthy's The Road These readings do not revert naively to a time before theory Instead they distill the insights of literary and cultural theory into concise introductions to the historical background the themes the formal strategies and the reception of influential literary texts and they do so in a jargon free language accessible to readers on all levels of qualification Book Lust Nancy Pearl,2009-09-29 What to read next is every book lover's greatest dilemma Nancy Pearl comes to the rescue with this wide ranging and fun guide to the best reading new and old Pearl who inspired legions of litterateurs with What If All Name the City Read the Same Book has devised reading lists that cater to every mood

occasion and personality These annotated lists cover such topics as mother daughter relationships science for nonscientists mysteries of all stripes African American fiction from a female point of view must reads for kids books on bicycling chick lit and many more Pearl s enthusiasm and taste shine throughout The New York Times Book Reviews 2000 New York Times Staff,2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource The Art of the Reprint Rosalind Parry,2023-03-30 A genuinely original work The Art of the Reprint establishes the reprint as a vital area of study In tightly curated encounters between extraordinary twentieth century artists and beloved nineteenth century novels Clare Leighton travels to Dorset to minutely observe Thomas Hardy s landscape for a 1929 The Return of the Native 1878 Rockwell Kent channels his many sea journeys into a 1930 Moby Dick 1851 Fritz Eichenberg transposes the churn and isolation of fleeing Nazi Germany onto Expressionistic engravings for Charlotte Bront s Jane Eyre 1847 and Joan Hassall elucidates a bright social world at miniature scale for a 1975 set of The Complete Novels of Jane Austen 1787 1817 Mediators between text and book and author and reader these artists interpreted these novels and then illustrated their interpretations stunningly and strangely in wood ink and paper for everyday readers Novels George McDonald,1927 Life Stories Maureen O'Connor,2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books Climate Change and the Contemporary Novel Adeline Johns-Putra,2019-03-21 Analysing how contemporary fiction explores climate change Johns Putra argues that literature can help us understand our obligations to the future The Use of Man Aleksandar Tisma,2014-11-11 The Use of Man starts with an unexpected discovery World War II is ending Sredoje Lazuki has been fighting all through it Now as one of the victorious Partisans he has come home to Novi Sad He visits the house he grew up in Strangers nervously show him around He looks up the mother of Milinko his best friend Milinko's girlfriend Vera was the daughter of a Jew a bookish businessman Her house stands empty and open Venturing in Sreduje is surprised to find the diary of the German tutor that Milinko Vera and he all shared Fr ulein who died on the operating table just before the war Here however in a cheap notebook in Vera's old room is a record of Fr ulein's lonely days with the sentimental caption Po sie The diary survived Sreduje survived Vera and Milinko have survived too But what survives A few years back Sreduje Vera and Milinko were teenagers struggling to make sense of life Life they now know can be more bitter than death A work of stark poetry and illimitable sadness The Use of Man is one of the great books of the 20th century Another Jesus, a Different Spirit, a Different Gospel Steven H. Propp, 2011-12-13 Its the Christmas season the most wonderful time of the year for most people in River City California But for Jehovahs Witnesses Lawrence and Brad its a time for them to try to explain the truth about this holiday season to the people of the community Their earnest efforts may earn them ridicule disagreement or a door slammed rudely in their faces but they persist and are sometimes able to find a mind and heart receptive to their urgent message about Jehovahs coming Kingdom Whereas for Elders Skousen and Marshall two Latter day Saint Mormon missionaries the season is another opportunity to share their Churchs distinctive interpretation of the Christian gospel but their efforts are often rebuffed as well In the course of their work these two pairs of men engage in dialogue with traditional Christians as well as members of the Church of Christ the Community of Christ RLDS Seventh day Adventists and Oneness Pentecostals not to mention skeptics atheists and the increasing numbers of people who lack any particular religious beliefs But when a local church brings in a researcher to give a series of lectures on Cults and specifically targeting the Jehovahs Witnesses and Mormons a confrontation is ensured where theological and biblical concepts collide in a public forum Who if anyone really has the Truth Can one still discover the true meaning of Christmas in the midst of passionate disagreements over the validity of the holiday season Are objections raised about the secularization and rampant commercialism of the modern celebration valid Spend a holiday season or any other season with some interesting and intellectually stimulating characters as they explore these and other challenging questions Readers of the authors earlier novel A Multicultural Christmas will be pleased to see a brief reappearance of two characters from that book The Complete Novels of George MacDonald (Illustrated) George MacDonald, 2024-01-09 The Complete Novels of George MacDonald Illustrated is an anthology that compiles the complete works of one of the most influential figures in Victorian literature MacDonald's novels exhibit a rich tapestry of fantasy and realism blending deep theological reflections with enchanting narratives that explore themes of love redemption and the nuances of the human experience The elegant prose is imbued with allegorical depth inviting readers to delve into the mystical realms and moral landscapes of his imagination Enhanced by illustrations this collection underscores the imaginative worlds he conjured reflecting both the period's aesthetic sensibilities and his commitment to the transformative power of storytelling George MacDonald 1824-1905 was a Scottish author poet and theologian whose literary career was significantly influenced by his own struggles with faith and spirituality His works often stemmed from a desire to integrate morality with creative expression shaped by his friendships with contemporaries such as Lewis Carroll and the Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood MacDonald s pioneering role as a precursor to modern fantasy laid the groundwork for future authors like C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien with whom he shares a commitment to infusing spirituality into their narratives Readers seeking to explore the profound depths of human insight wrapped in fantasy will find The Complete Novels of George MacDonald Illustrated an invaluable addition to their literary collection This comprehensive anthology not only encapsulates the essence of MacDonald s philosophy and artistry but also serves as a vital reference point in understanding the evolution of fantasy literature It is an essential reading for those interested in the intersections of faith literature and imagination

The Complete Novels of George MacDonald (Illustrated Edition) George MacDonald,2023-12-07 George MacDonald s The Complete Novels of George MacDonald Illustrated Edition presents a comprehensive collection of his seminal works showcasing his imaginative storytelling and unique blend of fantasy and moral allegory MacDonald s literature often regarded as pioneering within the fantasy genre explores profound themes such as the nature of love redemption and the divine all imbued with a lyrical prose style that invites readers into richly imagined worlds This illustrated edition enhances the reading experience providing visual interpretations that complement MacDonald s enchanting narratives and deep philosophical inquiries George MacDonald a Scottish author and a key figure in the Victorian literary scene was deeply influenced by his background in theology and the arts A mentor to major fantasy writers like C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien MacDonald s works reflect his belief in the transformative power of literature His struggles with personal faith and his pastoral experiences are often mirrored in his stories as he sought to intertwine moral lessons with vivid storytelling This illustrated collection is a must read for those who appreciate the foundations of modern fantasy literature and the moral dimensions embedded within it Readers will find themselves transported to fantastical realms while grappling with timeless ethical dilemmas making this edition both a captivating and thought provoking addition to any literary library

Covert Capital Andrew Friedman,2013-08-02 The capital of the U S Empire after World War II was not a city It was an American suburb In this innovative and timely history Andrew Friedman chronicles how the CIA and other national security institutions created a U S imperial home front in the suburbs of Northern Virginia In this covert capital the suburban landscape provided a cover for the workings of U S imperial power which shaped domestic suburban life The Pentagon and the CIA built two of the largest office buildings in the country there during and after the war that anchored a new imperial culture and social world As the U S expanded its power abroad by developing roads embassies and villages its subjects also arrived in the covert capital as real estate agents homeowners builders and landscapers who constructed spaces and living monuments that both nurtured and critiqued postwar U S foreign policy Tracing the relationships among American agents and the migrants from Vietnam El Salvador Iran and elsewhere who settled in the southwestern suburbs of D C Friedman tells the story of a place that recasts ideas about U S immigration citizenship nationalism global interconnection and ethical responsibility from the post WW2 period to the present Opening a new window onto the intertwined history of the American suburbs and U S foreign policy Covert Capital will also give readers a broad interdisciplinary and often surprising understanding of how U S domestic and global histories intersect in many contexts and at many scales American Crossroads 37 Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk,2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines A Road Course in Early American Literature Thomas Hallock,2021-02-23 A Road Course in Early American Literature Travel and Teaching from Atzl n to Amherst explores a two part question what does travel teach us about literature and how can reading guide us to a deeper understanding of place and identity Thomas Hallock charts a teacher s journey to answering these questions framing personal experiences around the continued need for a survey course covering early American literature up to the mid nineteenth century Hallock approaches literary study from the overlapping perspectives of pedagogue scholar unrepentant tourist husband father friend and son Building on Ralph Waldo Emerson s premise that there is creative reading as well as creative writing Hallock turns to the vibrant and accessible tradition of American travel writing employing the form of biblio memoir to bridge the impasse between public and academic discourse and reintroduce the dynamic field of early American literature to wider audiences Hallock s own road course begins and ends at the Lowcountry of Georgia and South Carolina following a circular structure of reflection He weaves his journey through a wide swath of American literatures and authors from Native American and African American oral traditions to Wheatley and Equiano through Emerson Poe and Dickinson among others A series of longer place oriented narratives explore familiar and lesser known literary works from the sixteenth century invasion of Florida through the Mexican War of 1846 1848 and the American Civil War Shorter chapters bridge the book s central themes the mapping of cognitive and physical space our personal stake in reading the tensions that follow earlier acts of erasure and the impossibility of ever fully shutting out the past Exploring complex cultural histories and contemporary landscapes filled with ghosts and new voices this volume draws inspiration from a tradition of travel place oriented and literature based works ranging from William Carlos Williams s In the American Grain and Jack Kerouac s On the Road to Alice Walker s In Search of Our Mother s Gardens Wendy Lesser s Why I Read The Serious Pleasure of Books and Rebecca Mead s My Life in Middlemarch An accompanying bibliographic essay is periodically updated and available at Hallock s website www.roadcourse.us

Writing the City Peter Preston, Paul Simpson-Housley, 2002-09-11 Arguing that classic geographical descriptions of the city fail to accomodate the crucial aspect of human life this visualizes the city through the hopes aspirations disappointments and pains of international novelists and creative writers

Religious Experience and the Modernist Novel Pericles Lewis, 2010-01-07 The modernist period witnessed attempts to explain religious experience in non religious terms Such novelists as Henry James Marcel Proust James Joyce Virginia Woolf and Franz Kafka found methods to describe through fiction the sorts of experiences that had traditionally been the domain of religious mystics and believers In Religious Experience and the Modernist Novel Pericles Lewis considers the development of modernism in the novel in relation to changing attitudes to religion Through comparisons of major novelists with sociologists and psychologists from the same period Lewis identifies the unique ways that literature addressed the changing spiritual situation of the early twentieth century He challenges accounts that assume secularisation as the main narrative for understanding twentieth century literature Lewis explores the experiments that modernists undertook in order to invoke the sacred without directly naming it resulting in a compelling study for readers of twentieth century modernist literature
