Lost In The Fifties:

Lost in the Fifties , Wheeler Dixon examines the lost films and directors of the 1950s Contrasting traditional themes of love marriage and family the author s 1950s film world unveils once taboo issues and television shows such as Captain Midnight are juxtaposed with the cheerful world of I Love Lucy The Lost Decade? The 1950s in European History, Politics, Society and Culture Heiko Feldner,Claire Gorrara,Kevin Passmore,2010-10-12 This volume of essays explores the social political and cultural legacies of a decade which has until relatively recently received scant scholarly attention Sandwiched uncomfortably between the traumatic events of the Second World War and the dramatic changes of the 1960s the 1950s appeared as seemingly transitional years while they were in fact an astonishingly fecund period of reassessment and experimentation when traditional models were re evaluated and new models were road tested to be either developed or rejected An important intervention in the dynamic scholarly re examination of the 1950s this volume analyzes these years in relation to three broadly defined areas historiography politics and society and culture What emerges from all three parts of the volume is a vision of the 1950s as a decade which was to have a profound impact on post war European identities in two key respects as a time of accelerated European intellectual exchange and as a time of fertile receptivity to the new variously formulated and contested across and within national borders Written by experts in the field the contributions to this volume represent some of the most exciting work on the 1950s currently being undertaken in Europe and the US They combine high intellectual standards with accessibility and will appeal to academics students and the general reader alike Lost Films of the Fifties Douglas Brode,1988 How do you define forgotten A lost film to my mind is a movie that has yet to evolve as a cult film but which has the potential to One rule of thumb in compiling the hundred films I write about here and the selection process was a long painful one was that I would severely limit the number of films featuring big stars I put a high priority on emphasizing movies that ought to be anthologized but which probably never would unless I included them here from Introduction From the Fleet in the Fifties Mrs. Tom Kelly,1902 Lost Gulfport John Cuevas,2018-08-20 The second largest city in the state Gulfport is the business center of south Mississippi Many of the city s cherished landmarks and businesses have been lost to Hurricanes Camille and Katrina the development of shopping malls and Interstate 10 Gulfport s answer to the quintessential 50s malt shop Stone s Ice Cream became a favorite hangout for students families and businessmen throughout its long history The Paramount Theatre was famous for its annual Christmas raffle during the 50s Known as the Hosts of the Gulf Coast the Friendship House Restaurant served up a great cup of coffee along with its celebrated Hospitality Menu Historian John Cuevas takes a look back at Gulfport s shops restaurants nightclubs cinemas and more from a bygone age Nothing Is Lost Ingrid Sischy,2018-11-20 From the late editor writer and critic one of the great chroniclers of the art fashion and celebrity scenes an expansive collection of thirty five essays that offer an intimate look into the worlds of some of the most important and well known artists designers and actors of our time For more than three decades Ingrid Sischy's profiles and critical essays have been admired for their keen observation and playful style Many of the pieces that appeared in The New York Times Magazine The New Yorker and Vanity Fair from the 1980s to 2015 are gathered here for the first time including her masterful profiles of Nicole Kidman Kristen Stewart Miuccia Prada Calvin Klein Jeff Koons Jean Pigozzi Alice Neel and Francesco Clemente among others as well as her exclusive interview with John Galliano after his career nose dived in 2011 Whether writing about a young Alexander McQueen the photography of Robert Mapplethorpe Sebastião Salgado Cindy Sherman or Bob Richardson or the Japanese musical theater group Takarazuka Revue Sischy's close attention to the unexpectedly telling detail results in vividly crafted incisive portraits of individuals and their works Here is a unique collection that gives readers unprecedented access to a dazzling range of artists from one of the greatest cultural critics of a generation What America Lost: Decades That Made a Difference Sallie Ferrell

Bolich,2009-08-04 As the fifties ended we were about to embark on a journey that would take our American society in a completely new direction By reviewing history we can identify how the tumultuous sixties chose our path while each decade beginning in 1950 and continuing through 2000 determined our course at that time On this journey many values and lifestyles experienced by the Baby Boomers were left behind not passed on to their children Gen X and Gen Y The resulting new outlook profoundly influenced attitudes held by these emerging generations The fascinating field of handwriting analysis serves as our GPS which enables us to identify these attitudes trace where we've been and understand where society is today Handwriting is an expression of self and attitudes resulting from personal experiences social interactions and events that made a significant impact Reliving the journey with insight is made possible by studying handwriting samples obtained from high school yearbooks covering those five decades Numerous historical and societal changes profoundly influenced attitudes of today These attitudes mirror our culture Handwriting analysis will not reveal precise societal changes however it will reveal how these changes impact attitudes The Hours Have Lost Their Clock Grafton Tanner,2021-10-12 The Hours Have Lost Their Clock charts the rise of nostalgia in an era knocked out of time In The Hours Have Lost Their Clock Grafton Tanner charts the rise of nostalgia in an era knocked out of time Nostalgia is the defining emotion of our age Political leaders promise a return to yesteryear Old movies are remade and cancelled series are rebooted Veterans reenact past wars while the displaced across the world long for home But who is behind this collective ache for a home in the past Do we need to eliminate nostalgia or just cultivate it better And what is at stake if we make the wrong choice Moving from the fight over Confederate monuments to the birth of homeland security to the mourning of species extinction Grafton Tanner traces nostalgia's ascent in the twenty first century revealing its power as both a consequence of our unstable time and a defense against it With little faith in a future of climate change and economic anxiety many have turned to nostalgia to weather the present while powerful elites exploit it for their own gain An exploration into the politics of loss and yearning The Hours Have Lost Their Clock is an urgent call to take nostalgia seriously The very future depends on it The ^Alost Lectures of C. Vann Woodward C. Vann Woodward, 2020-10-06 The Lost Lectures of C Vann Woodward focuses on lectures Woodward delivered in the mid twentieth century that reflect his life long interest in exploring the contours and limits of liberalism during key moments of great change in the South From the fleet in the fifties, a history of the Crimean war.
