Lost New Orleans:

New Orleans in Golden Age Postcards Matthew Griffis, 2020-09-22 New Orleans in Golden Age Postcards showcases over three hundred vintage postcard images of the city printed in glorious color From popular tourist attractions restaurants and grand hotels to local businesses banks churches neighborhoods civic buildings and parks the book not only celebrates these cards visual beauty but also considers their historic value After providing an overview of the history of postcards in New Orleans Matthew Griffis expertly arranges and describes the postcards by subject or theme Focusing on the period from 1900 to 1920 the book is the first to offer information about the cards many publishers More than a century ago people sent postcards like we make phone calls today Many also collected postcards even trading them in groups or clubs Adorned with colorized views of urban and rural landscapes postcards offered people a chance to own images of places they lived visited or merely dreamed of visiting Today these relics remain one of the richest visual records of the last century as they offer a glimpse at the ways a city represented itself They now appear regularly in art exhibits blogs and research collections Many of the cards in this book have not been widely seen in well over a century and many of the places and traditions they depict have long since vanished A Compilation of the Messages and Papers of the Presidents, 1789-1897: Appendix. Index United States. President, James Daniel Richardson, 1897 Economics David A. Dieterle, 2017-03-27 A comprehensive four volume resource that explains more than 800 topics within the foundations of economics macroeconomics microeconomics and global economics all presented in an easy to read format As the global economy becomes increasingly complex interconnected and therefore relevant to each individual in every country it becomes more important to be economically literate to gain an understanding of how things work beyond the microcosm of the economic needs of a single individual or family unit This expansive reference set serves to establish basic economic literacy of students and researchers providing more than 800 objective and factually driven entries on all the major themes and topics in economics Written by leading scholars and practitioners the set provides readers with a framework for understanding economics as mentioned and debated in the public forum and media Each of the volumes includes coverage of important events throughout economic history biographies of the major economists who have shaped the world of economics and highlights of the legislative acts that have shaped the U S economy throughout history The extensive explanations of major economic concepts combined with selected key historical primary source documents and a glossary will endow readers with a fuller comprehension of our economic world Hearings United States. Touring the Antebellum South with an English Opera Company Michael Burden, 2020-10-21 The diary of Anton Reiff Jr c 1830 1916 is one of only a handful of primary sources to offer a firsthand account of antebellum riverboat travel in the American South The Pyne and Harrison Opera Troupe a company run by English sisters Susan and Louisa Pyne and their business partner tenor William Harrison hired Reiff then freelancing in New York to serve as musical director and conductor for the company s American itinerary The grueling tour began in November 1855 in Boston and then proceeded to New York Philadelphia Baltimore Pittsburgh and Cincinnati where after a three week engagement the company boarded a paddle steamer bound for New Orleans It was at that point that Reiff started to keep his diary Diligently transcribed and annotated by Michael Burden Reiff s diary presents an extraordinarily rare view of life with a foreign opera company as it traveled the country by river and rail Surprisingly Reiff comments little on the Pyne Harrison performances themselves although he does visit the theaters in the river towns including New Orleans where he spends evenings both at the French Opera and at the Gaiety Instead Reiff focuses his attention on other passengers on the mechanics of the journey on the landscape and on events he encounters including the 1856 Mardi Gras and the unveiling of the statue of Andrew Jackson in New Orleans s Jackson Square Reiff is clearly captivated by the river towns and their residents including the enslaved whom he encountered whenever the boat tied up Running throughout the journal is a thread of anxiety for apart from the typical dangers of a river trip the winter of 1855 1856 was one of the coldest of the century and the steamer had difficulties with river ice Historians have used Reiff s journal as source material but until now the entire text which is archived in Louisiana State University s Special Collections in Hill Memorial Library has only been available in its original state As a primary source the published journal will have broad appeal to historians and other readers interested in antebellum riverboat travel highbrow entertainment and the people and places of the South
