Little by Little

When Charley awoke one morning, he looked from the window and saw the ground deeply covered with snow. On the side of the house nearest the kitchen, the snow was piled higher than Charley's head.

"We need a path through this snow," said his father. "I would make one if I had time, but I must be at the office early this morning. Do you think you could make the path, son?" he asked little Charley.

"Me? The snow is higher than my head! How could I ever make a path through that snow?"

"How? By doing it little by little. How about you try?" requested his father as he left for his office.
