88 Poems of Encouragement Jerry Lee Schock, 2018-04-14 My heartfelt thanks to all who have encouraged this publishing Through the years my desire was to publish and share with others who may need encouragement Many poems have been emailed and handed to those in need along the way As friends and loved ones were in valleys and going through trials God would give me words of encouragement for them Every poem was written out of a need someone had that the Lord sent my way The poems span many years of writing and are from the heart as the Holy Spirit led May the words continue to bless and encourage those who read God has answered so many prayers through the years and with the publishing of this the poetry yet another is answered May God Bless each of you historical novels A Community of One Martin A. Danahay, 1993-08-24 Complementing recent feminist studies of female self representation this book examines the dynamics of masculine self representation in nineteenth century British literature Arguing that the category autobiography was a product of nineteenth century individualism the author analyzes the dependence of the nineteenth century masculine subject on autonomy or self naming as the prerequisite for the composition of a life history The masculine autobiographer achieves this autonomy by using a feminized other as a metaphorical mirror for the self The feminized other in these texts represents the social cost of masculine autobiography Authors from Wordsworth to Arnold including Samuel Taylor Coleridge Thomas De Quincey John Ruskin Alfred Tennyson Robert Louis Stevenson John Stuart Mill and Edmund Gosse use female lovers and family members as symbols for the community with which they feel they have lost contact In the theoretical introduction the author argues that these texts actually privilege the autonomous self over the images of community they ostensibly value creating in the process a self enclosed and self
