

PRAYER FOR MY FAITH

Father Lord,

Help me hold my faith in all things.
Strengthen it and let it overcome any anxiety in me. Let my faith know no boundaries. Let it clothe me in every weather. Help me never to lose faith no matter the mountain that is before me. Let my thoughts, words, and actions mimic the faith I have in you.

Help me heal, strengthen and change with my faith. Fill me with the hope of your glory every day. Let my faith grow in strength each day. Let me not be put down by any evil that seeks to rob my faith and let me be victorious in all things because of my faith in you.

Amen

A Year of Prayers Jack Bartlett, 2011-06-10 The 365 poems in this collection one for every day of the year are a journey through prayer The objective of the poems is to serve as an accompaniment to prayer silently in the form of a verse The initial inspiration of these writings was from the Psalms but there is referenced material throughout the Scriptures as well as events that occurred in history and in the author's daily life With only a few exceptions the prayer poems are not date specific denomination specific or even specific to the author only but to everyone The poems speak of subjects such as faith death nature freedom love beauty and history Each poem is intended to be able to stand on its own independent of the others These poems are unique in that they are prayers first poems second and could be considered daily devotions spiritual meditations or as a resource for pastors of all Christian denominations They are written so that they could also be crossover poetry and could be attractive to secular tastes as well The monumental task of writing this many poems brought the author's attention to prayer itself and to the nature of artistic expression which cannot be forced but must come of its own The succeeding visitations of the ideas or inspirations gave reason to believe that not surprisingly the author had help from the very ONE being written to and about Praying God's Word for Your Life Kathi Lipp, 2013-06-01 Many women find it easy to pray for the concerns and well-being of others. But when it comes to praying for themselves, they may wonder: Should I pray for my own needs? Are any prayers too big or too small? Are my prayers effective? Are they selfish? Does praying really make a difference? Praying God's Word for Your Life gives women the direction and Scripture they need to bring purpose and power to their prayers. The simple strategies Kathi Lipp shares will create in women the habit of praying with renewed boldness, consistency, and expectation. And Kathi's warm, approachable style will make praying Scripture accessible to new believers and lifelong Christians alike. Zierler, 2025-10 Featured on Zibby Owens My Most Anticipated Books 2025 list Interweaving memoir with Hebrew poetry Going Out with Knots illuminates author Wendy I Zierler's literary and personal Jewish mourning journey in the aftermath of unremitting personal loss. She begins with her story: the death of both her parents in one year, the challenges she faced as a woman saying Kaddish in an Orthodox synagogue and her decision to teach a weekly class on modern Hebrew poems that address grief, prayer, and God wrestling. Each subsequent chapter delves into the works of a different modern Hebrew poet: Lea Goldberg, Avraham Alfi, Yehuda Amichai, Rachel Morpurgo, Rachel Bluwstein, Ruhama Weiss, and Amir Gilboa in the order in which she translated, interpreted, and taught their poems, many translated into English for the first time. Each poet, like Zierler, comes to writing deeply connected to Jewish tradition and yet at odds with it too. Ultimately, Going Out with Knots reflects on how a woman living in a Modern Orthodox community can claim a place in the male-centered rituals that Jewish tradition prescribes for mourning and how immersion in modern Hebrew poetry can respond deeply to both communal COVID-19 (October 7) as well as personal losses, offering a new form of theology and Torah.
