General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. Department of Printed Books, 1959 Clandestine Erotic Fiction in English 1800-1930 Peter Mendes, 2016-12-05 This work offers bibliographical descriptions of all printings of erotic fiction in English issued clandestinely during the period 1800-1930. By clandestine is meant books whose publishers and printers attempt to hide their identities usually by offering title pages whose misleading places and dates of publication may shock and amuse but which always aim to mystify. Using internal and external evidence an attempt is made to establish who were the printers, booksellers and publishers. English and Continental involved in this trade. The printing families or groups into which a large percentage of the material falls are classified, accompanied by illustrations which identify the main printing characteristics, house styles of the groups. Bibliographical descriptions follow a checklist of clandestine catalogues; these provide valuable evidence for dating, pricing and sales pitch and information on items of which no copies can now be traced. The work concludes with a series of appendices which provide significant external evidence and three indexes of themes, titles and names. Peter Mendes' original research builds on and significantly extends the essential pioneer work of the Victorian collector and bibliographer H. S. Ashbee. Pisanus Fraxi Encyclopedia of Censorship Jonathon Green, Nicholas J. Karolides, 2014-05-14 Articles examine the history and evolution of censorship presented in A to Z format Literature, Technology, and Modernity, 1860-2000 Nicholas Daly, 2004-02-12 Industrial modernity takes it as self-evident that there is a difference between people and machines but the corollary of this has been a recurring fantasy about the erasure of that difference. The central scenario in this fantasy is the crash, sometimes literal, sometimes metaphorical. Nicholas Daly considers the way human-machine encounters have been imagined from the 1860s on, arguing that such scenes dramatize the modernization of subjectivity. This book will be of interest to scholars of modernism, literature and film The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1975 British Library, 1979 Bibliographie de la France, 1907 Bibliographie de l'Empire français ou Journal général de l'imprimerie et de la librairie British and Irish Literature and Its Times Joyce Moss, 2001 Examines the relationship between the political-social climate during which books were written and the works themselves.
