My Iron Lung:

My Iron Lung , Iron Lung Kirstine Reffstrup, 2025-04-22 A girl is struck down by polio during the terrifying epidemic of the early 1950s Paralysed and unable to breathe on her own she is committed to hospital in Copenhagen and placed in an iron lung Forty years earlier near Budapest a child grows up in an orphanage for boys The child goes by the name of Boy but is not like the others as their body seems to transcend the categories of boy or girl Between these two young people there is a powerful enigmatic bond that stretches across time and space Radiohead , A Miracle Steve Clark, 2021-05-07 This story is about a child that was never expected to survive polio and the support that his parents and others gave him through his recovery It is also about God's hand in the miracle of life and the blessings of his foundation in God and the teachings of the Bible In the darkest time of his illness God reached into a gray black lake and brought him back to life This story describes how his family remained ever hopeful for his recovery even when being told he had died and later being told he would only live for a few more days Within days of being told he was still alive his parents were informed his life expectancy would be a few months or years Without their belief in hard work self reliance and God's plan they would never have been able to cope with the severity of bulbar polio His family's strong belief that God had a plan for them gave him hope that would lead him through the recovery process It tells the story of what the poliovirus did to him physically mentally and spiritually and how he and his family responded to it God never left their side through the exhausting trials of learning to speak and move again This story also explains the long lingering effects of post polio syndrome and how it still plays a role in his life and as well as many other survivors Throughout the story hope is ever present in him and it reflects how hope gave him the strength to survive and improve through the pain of the recovery process Replaceable You Mary Roach, 2025-10-02 Is the bionic human just around the corner Mary Roach offers a fascinating tour of the wonderful world of regenerative medicine TIME The Most Anticipated Books of Fall 2025 Our bodies regenerate at a remarkable rate our skin replaces itself every month our blood every four You can remove ninety per cent of a liver and it'll still grow back to its original size please do not try this at home Others the brain the heart the eyes are more complicated These stay with us for life So what do we do when they break down For centuries medicine has searched for answers sculpting noses from brass borrowing skin from frogs and hearts from pigs and crafting eye parts from jet canopies And as technology has grown ever more ingenious so have our solutions In Replaceable You Mary Roach sets sail on the uncharted waters of regenerative medicine exploring the remarkable advances and difficult questions prompted by the human body's failings When and how does a person decide they'd be better off with a prosthetic than their existing limb Is there a sensitive way to harvest tissue and bones from the deceased Which animals might be the best organ donors Through experiments and interviews with patients physicians pathologists engineers and scientists Roach immerses readers in the wondrous improbable and surreal quest to build a new you Addictively readable Don't miss it Deborah Blum author of The Poisoner's Handbook Radiohead

Ray and Joe Charles Rodrigues,2013-10-18 Fantagraphics is proud to announce the release of the first volume of another great under appreciated quintessentially American cartoonist Black as sin and decay and perversion is how National

Lampoon editor Tony Hendra described the work of Charles Rodrigues By all accounts this small politically conservative devout Catholic was a good natured dumpling of a man But inside lurked an untapped vein of savage wit that only the National Lampoon saw fit to unleash Given carte blanche by its young editors Rodrigues produced a 20 year tsunami of hilarious self contained comic strips themed gag spreads and serials that boggled the mind and challenged all sense of decency and propriety In this first ever collection of his comics readers are treated to the misadventures of conjoined twins The Aesop Brothers Sam deGroot a private detective in an iron lung whose life actually gets worse when he is sprung from his enclosure Deirdre Callahan a girl so hideous that to look upon her causes madness and suicide and the heartwarming in relative terms titular tale of Ray and Joe the saga of a man and his dead best friend Also included are his brilliant biographies of Marilyn Monroe Abbie Hoffman Eugene O'Neill and others Rodrigues rendered his cast of grotesqueries and naifs in a ragged unpretty line within dense panels and pages that perfectly reflects his uniquely bizarre riotous and repellent world Charles Rodrigues may be gone and if not forgotten insufficiently remembered and this collection will rectify at least one of those tragedies

Seven Wheelchairs Gary Presley, 2008-04 In 1959 seventeen year old Gary Presley was standing in line wearing his favorite cowboy boots and waiting for his final inoculation of Salk vaccine Seven days later a bad headache caused him to skip basketball practice tell his dad that he was too ill to feed the calves and walk from barn to bed with shaky dizzying steps He never walked again By the next day burning with the fever of polio he was fastened into the claustrophobic cocoon of the iron lung that would be his home for the next three months Set among the hardscrabble world of the Missouri Ozarks sizzling with sarcasm and acerbic wit his memoir tells the story of his journey from the iron lung to life in a wheelchair Presley is no wheelchair hero no inspiring figure preaching patience and gratitude An army brat turned farm kid newly arrived in a conservative rural community he was immobilized before he could take the next step toward adulthood Prevented literally from taking that next step he became cranky and crabby anxious and alienated a rolling responsibility crippled not just by polio but by anger and depression a crip all over starting with the brain Slowly however despite the limitations of navigating in a world before the Americans with Disabilities Act he builds an independent life Now almost fifty years later having worn out wheelchair after wheelchair survived post polio syndrome and married the woman of his dreams Gary has redefined himself as Gimp more ready to act out than to speak up ironic perceptive still cranky and intolerant but more accepting more able to find joy in his family and his newfound religion Despite the fact that he detests pity can spot condescension from miles away and refuses to play the role of noble victim he writes in a way that elicits sympathy and understanding and laughter By giving his readers the unromantic truth about life in a wheelchair he escapes stereotypes about people with disabilities and moves toward a place where every individual is irreplaceable
