Good Wives Margaret Forster,2012-07-31 What is a good wife The bestselling author of Hidden Lives explores four marriages including her own in different times and societies to find the answer In 1848 Mary Moffatt became the wife of the missionary and explorer David Livingstone and her obedience and devotion eventually killed her In 1960 Margaret Forster married her school sweetheart Hunter Davies in a London Registry Office and interpreted the role very differently Between these two marriages is a huge gulf in which the notion of marriage changed immeasurably Forster traces the shift in emphasis from submission to partnership first through the marriage of one unconventional American Fanny Osbourne to Robert Louis Stevenson in the late nineteenth century and then through that of Jennie Lee to Aneurin Bevan in the 1930s Why does a woman still want to be a wife in the twenty first century What is the value of marriage today Why do couples still marry in church These are some of the questions Forster asks as she weaves the personal experience of forty years through the stories of three wives who have long fascinated her Life As I Find It Charles Neider,2000-02-14 Mark Twain's hilarity and irreverence shine through in this impeccably chosen collection Women and Citizenship in Britain and Ireland in the 20th Century Esther Breitenbach,Pat Thane,2010-05-06 The continuing under representation of women in political and public life remains a matter of concern across a wide range of countries including the UK and Ireland Within the UK it is a topical issue as political parties currently debate strategies often controversial which will increase women's representation At the same time devolution has ushered in significant change in the level of women's representation in Scotland and Wales and improved representation for women in Northern Ireland That such increases in women's representation in political institutions have been slow in coming is indisputable given that full enfranchisement of women on equal terms with men was achieved in Ireland in 1921 and in the UK in 1928 Jennie Lee Patricia Hollis,2014-09-18 First published in 1997 Patricia Hollis's biography of the pioneering Labour MP Jennie Lee 1904-1988 won both the Wolfson History Prize and the Orwell Prize It is the definitive study of this remarkable woman her stormy political career and her marriage to Aneurin Bevan In a new preface to this edition Hollis adds insights into Lee's life which emerged subsequent to first publication and also draws on her own experience as a Labour Minister from 1997-2005 Lee's lives and loves passions and drives are beautifully and frankly explored in Patricia Hollis's compelling book THES Superbly researched engrossingly written scrupulously honest Gerald Kaufman Daily Telegraph What makes it particularly fascinating is the author's own first hand knowledge of politics and of the Labour movement TLS One of the best political biographies of recent years Alan Watkins New Statesman web we can calculate this answer in steps we start with differentiating in terms of the left most variable in xyz so here we start by taking the derivative with respect to x first $f_x = 4\cos 4x yz$ then $f_{xx} = 16\sin 4x yz$ $f_{xxy} = 16z\cos 4x yz$ finally $f_{xxyz} = 16\cos 4x yz$ $f_{xyz} = 16yz\sin 4x yz$
