My Mother Is Lost

Clifton D. Bryant

My Mother Is Lost:

My Mama Lost Her Job Dena Bell Bryant, 2010-07 This is a story of a mother who explains to her son that she lost her job With the current economic crisis many parents find themselves in this situation Very often children do not understand and it is hard for the parent to explain This story provides a conversation starter for that parent trying to tell their child of a job loss It also incorporates exercise

Missing Persons Clair Wills, 2024-04-02 How far would you go for the missing Blending private and public history cultural analysis family memoir and autobiography Clair Wills explores profound questions about memory loss motherhood and emigration She traces a history of sexual secrecy through four generations of unplanned pregnancies in her own family stretching from the 1890s to the 1980s and from the West of Ireland to Massachusetts London and the English countryside dramatizing the power of secret keeping as a form of care but also as a form of violence and exclusion At the heart of her search is a cousin who went missing from her own family born in a mother and baby home in the 1950s and brought up in an institution Wills asks not only what happened but why Why did families consent to the institutional care and control of unmarried mothers and their children Why did the system make sense to ordinary families and how can we make sense of it now What questions should we be asking about guilt blame and responsibility In order to uncover how people thought about illicit sex illegitimacy and institutions Wills follows the tracks laid down in family stories and anecdotes She interprets the gaps as places where the past was both preserved and disavowed We are all born into families regardless of whether we are allowed to belong to them In Missing Persons Wills asks us to undertake a radical reshaping of our idea of the family We are all part of the historical archive the remembering and forgetting is in us whether we like it or not

My Mother's House and Sido Colette, 2002-06-20 In My Mother's House and Sido Colette plays fictional variations on the themes of childhood family and above all her mother Vividly alive fond of cities music theater and books Sido devoted herself to her village Saint Saveur to her garden with its inhabitants and its animals and especially to her children particularly her youngest whom she called Minet Ch ri Unlike Gigi and Ch ri which focus largely on sexual love and its repercussions My Mother's House and Sido center on the compelling figure of a powerful nurturing woman in late nineteenth century rural France conveying the impact she had on her community and on her daughter who grew up to be a great writer

Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage

Troubled Paradise Eric Reitan, 2024-12-12 Grief over the loss of those we love is one of the most painful parts of life But Christianity has long offered consolation to those who grieve in the form of the Easter promise Death is not the end Beyond it lies a realm of perfect joy where mourning is no more and every tear is wiped away But won t this promise have limits if as Christians have traditionally believed some of God s creatures are eternally lost Can I really be perfectly happy in heaven if say my children are damned or annihilated And what about the Christian teaching that those in heaven are morally sanctified Doesn't this mean they will be perfected in a love so wide it includes even our enemies and hence the lost While delving deeply into the nature of grief and its relation to Christian ethics this book explores the reasoning that generates this problem of heavenly grief examines purported solutions and invites deeper reflection on a frequently dismissed idea that avoids the problem altogether the universalist notion that there are no limits to Easter's promise because all are ultimately saved In the Company of Women Dr. Brenda Hunter, 2011-06-15 All women long for the enjoyment counsel and emotional support found in close relationships However although they might wish that strong friendships would just happen they generally find that they require skill and effort In the Company of Women gives insight into the art of friendship offering wisdom and practical advice into how a woman can make and nurture lifelong relationships with other women Whether a woman is single or married employed or parenting full time In the Company of Women will give her tips for building stronger closer relationships with her mother sisters daughters friends mentors and peers throughout every phase of her life Thank You, Pakistan Sylvia Pandit, 2019-12-10 Yes I want to thank Pakistan for being so brutal with us since its birth in 1947 until the birth of Bangladesh in 1971 If Pakistan then West Pakistan hadn't been so brutal and unfair the history of our country Bangladesh then East Pakistan and the world would have been quite different We would not have Bongobondhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman our Father of the Nation The world would not have observed February 21st as International Mother Language Day Liberation War of 1971 would not have occurred no Independence Day Victory Day or a new country Bangladesh We also would not have so many Bengali poets writers and leaders Our music is so sweet we would have lost that too If Pakistan had not attempted to forcefully replace our mother tongue Bangla Bengali with Urdu things might have been very different Their atrocities against our language culture people and freedom made us love our language and country much more It made us loving Nazrul Geeti Rabindra Sangeet Lalon Geeti Hason Rajar Gaan and all other Bengali literal music songs and folklores even more Pakistan did not succeed in making us forget or abandon such beautiful melodies songs and poetries but made us love them even more Pakistan unintentionally helped us love our country Bangladesh more love our language Bangla more love our culture and heritage more and that made me thankful to Pakistan Melville: A Novel Jean Giono, 2017-09-12 Originally published to promote his French translation of Moby Dick Jean Giono's Melville: A Novel is an astonishing literary compound of fiction biography personal essay and criticism In the fall of 1849 Herman Melville traveled to London to deliver his novel White Jacket to his publisher On his return to America Melville would write Moby Dick Melville: A Novel imagines what happened in between the adventurous writer fleeing London for the country wrestling with an angel falling in love with an Irish nationalist and finally meeting the angel's challenge to express man's fate by writing the novel that would become his masterpiece Eighty years after it appeared in English Moby Dick was translated into French for the first time by the Provençal novelist Jean Giono and his friend Lucien Jacques The publisher persuaded Giono to write a preface granting him unusual latitude The result was this literary essay Melville A Novel part biography part philosophical rumination part romance part unfettered fantasy Paul Eprile s expressive translation of this intimate homage brings the exchange full circle Paul Eprile was a co winner of the French American Foundation s 2018 Translation Prize for his translation of Melville S. 943 and H.R. 2005, Death on the High Seas Act United States.
