My Mother Worked And I Turned Out Okay:

Life's Work Lisa Belkin, 2003-05 Expanding on the themes and subjects that have made Life's Work one of the best read items in The New York Times Belkin considers that the modern supermom is just a myth and her eye for the resulting domestic comedy will strike a chord and a nerve with readers

My Mother Worked and I Turned Out Okay Katherine Goldman, 1993 In these hard times when 60% of America's mothers work outside the home guilt free parenting is practically impossible Goldman daughter of bestselling author Lois Wyse interviewed adult children of working women children who had not only survived but thrived This anecdotal survey provides positive reinforcement for working mothers

Essays on Classical Rhetoric and Modern Discourse Robert J. Connors, Lisa S. Ede, Andrea A. Lunsford, 1984 Eighteen essays by leading scholars in English speech communication education and philosophy explore the vitality of the classical rhetorical tradition and its influence on both contemporary discourse studies and the teaching of writing Some of the essays investigate the rhetorical and historical issues Others show the bearing of classical rhetoric on contemporary problems in composition thus blending theory and practice Common to the varied approaches and viewpoints expressed in this volume is one central theme the 20th century revival of rhetoric entails a recovery of the classical tradition with its marriage of a rich and fully articulated theory with an equally efficacious practice A preface demonstrates the contribution of Edward P. J. Corbett to the 20th century revival and a last chapter includes a bibliography of his works

Missing Persons Gayle Greene, 2017-10-18 Missing Persons is a memoir about dealing with death in a culture that gives no help As the last of her family Greene's losses are stark first her aunt then her mother in quick succession She is as ill equipped for the challenges of caring for a dying person at home as she is for the other losses long repressed that rise to confront her at this time the suicide of her younger brother the death of her father As the professional identity on which she's based her selfhood comes to feel brittle and trivial she is catapulted into questions of who am I and what have I done with my life The memoir is structured as an account of her mother's and aunt's final days and the year that follows a year in which she reconstructs her life This is a powerful story about family what it means to have one to lose one never to have made one and what if anything might take its place It's the story of a vexed mother daughter relationship that mellows with age It is also a search for home as the very landscape shifts around her and the vast orchards are dug up and paved over for tract housing strip malls freeways and the Santa Clara Valley once known as the Valley of Heart's Delight is transformed to Silicon

Sunrise at Pemaquid Point Dave Smeltzer, 2007-05 Dan McNaughton had everything anyone could possibly wish for in life He had loving parents the Love of His Life and a bright future to look forward to Then tragedy strikes and snowballs into an avalanche of tribulations His life journey would take him down paths that he never would have expected It would test his inner strength to the point of breaking but it would also guide him through a wealth of newfound friendships The vivid descriptions of this circle of friends bring each one to life and allows the reader to easily identify with one of them Dan McNaughton quickly enters the heart of the reader as you feel every pain and emotion that he feels His story will grab you and not let you go Dan s story is one of inspiration sorrow and joy As he travels through his life journey you will be right beside him Dan s constant companions will be the strength instilled by his parents the love of friends and his faith Orange County Housecleaners Frank Cancian,2006 Orange County Housecleaners documents the lives of seven women who make their livings cleaning houses in Orange County California Of the seven five are Latina immigrants and two are Orange County natives Sara Velazquez came to the United States alone when the youngest of her four children was ten and found ways to get all of them and her husband from Mexico to Orange County Sharon Risley earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in 1990 twenty six years after a teenage pregnancy destroyed her plans to go from high school to art school Mimi Lopez was alone on Thanksgiving 1985 when her twin daughters were born in the Miami home where she worked as a nanny Each chapter combines a woman s life story told in her own words with Frank Cancian s recent photos of her family work and other activities His introduction to the book gives background on domestic workers in Southern California and on the family situations of immigrant women who leave their children in their native countries while providing for them by working in the United States My Street, My Friends E.
