My Noiseless Entourage Poems:

My Noiseless Entourage Charles Simic, 2005-04-04 This collection of poems from Charles Simic demonstrates once again his wit moral acuity and brilliant use of imagery His settings are a farmhouse porch a used clothing store empty station platforms his subjects love futility and the sense of an individual life lived among a crowd of literal and imaginary presences Both sharp and sympathetic the poems of this collection confirm Simic's place as one of the most important and appealing poets of our time To Dreams I'm still living at all the old addresses Wearing dark glasses even indoors On the hush hush sharing my bed With phantoms visiting in the kitchen After midnight to check the faucet I'm late for school and when I get there No one seems to recognize me I sit disowned sequestered and withdrawn These small shops open only at night Where I make my unobtrusive purchases These back door movie houses in seedy neighborhoods Still showing grainy films of my life The hero always full of extravagant hope Losing it all in the end whatever it was Then walking out into the cold disbelieving light Waiting close lipped at the exit

New and Selected Poems Charles Simic, 2013 The first ever volume of new and selected poetry from one of our most celebrated and acclaimed poets Charles Simic

Charles Simic and the Poetics of Uncertainty Donovan McAbee, 2020-01-09 Charles Simic and the Poetics of Uncertainty provides the first full account of the poetics of the former US Poet Laureate who is one of the most popular and critically acclaimed English language poets writing today The book argues for uncertainty as the center of Simic's poetics and addresses the ways that his poetry grows from and navigates various forms of uncertainty Donovan McAbee addresses uncertainty regarding the national character of Simic's poetry and how this is complicated by Simic's identity as a Yugoslavian refugee to the United States The book assesses the theological and linguistic uncertainties of Simic's poetry and explores the ways that Simic articulates the aesthetic space created by poems as a safe place of encounter for the reader The book argues for the role of humor as a primary mode that holds together the uncertainties of Simic's poetry and finally it articulates the way that within these uncertainties Simic develops a deeply humane political poetry of survival Along the way Simic's work is placed in conversation with key influences and other important American and international poets and writers including James Tate Mark Strand Charles Wright Nicanor Parra Vasko Popa and others

The Best American Poetry 2008 Charles Wright, David Lehman, 2008-09-16 An anthology of poetry selected as the best published in magazines and periodicals in 2007 by editor Charles Wright featuring seventy five poems by Carolyn Forché Jorie Graham Louise Glück Alex Lemon and others

No Land in Sight Charles Simic, 2022-08-09 From one of America's most beloved poets a piercing new collection reflecting on the characters and encounters that haunt us through this life and into the next Leading us into a city stirring with gravediggers and beggars lovers and dogs Charles Simic returns with a brilliant collection full of his singular wit dark humor and tenderheartedness In poems that are often as spare as they are monumental he captures the fleeting moments of modern life peering inside pawnshop windows brushing shoulders with strangers on the street and walking familiar cemetery rows to uncover all the beauty and worry hiding in plain sight As the poet reflects on a lifetime's worth of pleasure and loss he recalls instances when he made excuses and hurried away and considers the way memory always trails just behind No Land in Sight is a testament to all we leave in our wake and simultaneously all we hang on to the passing minutes the evening's stillness and the many lives we inhabit in dim thresholds and bright mornings alike Faith and Doubt Patrice Vecchione, 2007-04-03 A collection of poems from around the world that explores the many facets of faith and doubt Awake!
