In Search of the Silk King Maya Herman, 2005-08-24 Maya Herman In Search of The Silk King A Novel Among many stories I heard in Southeast Asia the most fascinating is the story of the legendary American silk king of Thailand Jim Thompson It is as mysterious as Asia itself The name Jim Thompson seemed to follow me from the first moment I arrived in Bangkok The more stories and rumors I heard the more I became fascinated by them They had all the ingredients of a good novel or a major movie romance mystery glamour exotic locations and more The legend of the silk king and his disappearance remains as mysterious today as it was in 1967 No clues were ever found Only unanswered questions remained Using poetic license I decided to write a novel that might answer some of them As such the novel is very loosely and only in part based on the real life of Jim Thompson as I learned of it primarily through living in Bangkok traveling extensively throughout Southeast Asia and writing about it in my book of travel essays The Jade Window Bangkok 1998 It is also in part based on the information I gathered in my research from the newspaper articles on Thompson William Warren s indispensable biography of him on the interviews with Warren and Henry Thompson through Alexander Macdonald s notes and OSS archives for all of which I am immensely grateful Still my Jim Thompson is not a historic but a fictional character In Search of The Silk King is a work of fiction written in many voices that are tempered with the measure of truth Any errors biographical historical intended or otherwise are solely mine This

Soul Search David Darling, 2012-08 What happens when we die Does everything we are just stop Is consciousness lost forever Or does some vital spark inside us a spirit or a soul live on We find it almost impossible to think about not having a mind of our awareness being snuffed out like a candle Yet the stark fact is that within a century or so everyone alive today all six billion of us will be dead Humans are the only creatures on earth that know they are going to die But that foreknowledge has come fairly recently and it flies in the face of four billion years of evolution Those eons have genetically conditioned us to do all we can to preserve ourselves and our kin The result is that we are caught in a dilemma We are programmed to survive by our genes yet made painfully aware of our mortality by our forward looking brain If we admit that death is inevitable then our will to survive may be fatally weakened On the other hand if we deny death we have to turn a blind eye to a patent fact of the real world Only one avenue of escape is possible belief in an afterlife With this we can face the nightmare that death poses to the rational mind We distance ourselves from death by institutionalizing it Whereas in earlier times most people spent their last days at home in the bosom of family and friends today four fifths of us are removed to hospitals or nursing homes We are hidden from the gaze of the young and healthy and tended to by strangers As the end approaches we are discreetly moved to wards for the terminally ill and plugged into life support machines Technology takes over And when we do eventually die it is often the inadequacy of the equipment or the shortcomings of the treatment that are blamed Instead of accepting death as a natural and inevitable fact of life we are in danger of convincing ourselves that given further medical advances we shall be able to stave it off for as long as we like Some people want to achieve immortality through their works or their descendants said Woody Allen I want to achieve it through not dying Now for the first time science seems to be holding
