Goldman, 1994 Henrietha/Waiting For the World to Change Joyce M Johnson, 2023-11-10 It all started in Toronto Ontario in a coffee shop on the Southside corner of Church and King Street right across the street from St James Cathedral Joanna White was having a difficult time in her office as well as in her marriage as her husband had recently walked out on her Joanna is trying to restructure her life when she s interrupted by Jamaican born Henrietha Browne who had just walked in forcefully pulling her chair out sitting down taking a sip of her coffee then humming a song and tapping in rhythm close by Intrigued by Henrietha s carefree nature and desperate to get out of her own thoughts Joanna asks Henrietha to join Henrietha agrees and quickly bonds with Joanna while exchanging stories of pain defeat and abuse From that day forward they were inseparable making plans to continue to share stories as they explore Toronto Waiting for the World to Change speaks about marriage and domestic work Susan Ottawa a black lawyer in Toronto and Anita Kingsley a domestic worker had met in the same building where they live One day they were having lunch and Susan had a book that she had just bought In anger she threw a book titled Is marriage for White People on the table The root of Susan s anger comes from knowing she s struggling to find a man and men from all different walks of life are quicker to marry white women before the thought of a black woman crosses their mind Anita drew a comparison to domestic work As a college educated woman she too found it very difficult to find a job outside of domestic work and in her field of study She finds herself asking Is domestic work just for black people And it continues Odysseys Home George Elliott

Clarke,2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora The Nutmeg Princess
