Nutritional Strategies and Agricultural Change in a Mexican Community Kathleen Musante DeWalt, 1979 Social, Structural and Technological Changes in Agriculture, 1977-85 Mary E. Lassanyi, 1986 Research Methods for Anthropological Studies of Food and Nutrition Janet Chrzan, John Brett, 2017-02-01 The dramatic increase in all things food in popular and academic fields during the last two decades has generated a diverse and dynamic set of approaches for understanding the complex relationships and interactions that determine how people eat and how diet affects culture These volumes offer a comprehensive reference for students and established scholars interested in food and nutrition research in Nutritional and Biological Anthropology Archaeology Socio Cultural and Linguistic Anthropology Food Studies and Applied Public Health Handbook of Hispanic Cultures in the United States: Anthropology Nicolàs Kanellos, Claudia Esteva-Fabregat, Thomas Weaver, 1994-01-01 Recovering the U S Hispanic Literary Project is a national project to locate identify preserve and make accessible the literary contributions of U S Hispanics from colonial times through 1960 in what today comprises the fifty states of the United States Anthropology and Food Policy Della E. McMillan, 2013-05 Addressing broad issues of production distribution and consumption the seven essays in this volume introduce readers to anthropological work in food policy They show how information gathered from fieldwork especially at the individual family and community levels can help professionals plan and assess policies Fragile Lands Of Latin America John O. Browder, 2019-04-11 This book of selected research papers originally presented at the Symposium of Fragile Lands of Latin America The Search for Sustainable Uses presents some fresh evidence of the viability of a few non conventional strategies for natural resource development and management Making Our Research Useful John van Willigen, 2019-04-11 This book presents case studies that address how to improve the use of applied or policy research done by anthropologists It documents the applications of anthropology and in so doing improves practice The case studies treat the problem of knowledge use from a variety of perspectives Adding a Food Consumption Perspective to Farming Systems Research Timothy R. Frankenberger, 1985 Human Evolutionary Biology Michael P. Muehlenbein, 2010-07-29 Wide ranging and inclusive this text provides an invaluable review of an expansive selection of topics in human evolution variation and adaptability for professionals and students in biological anthropology evolutionary biology medical sciences and psychology The chapters are organized around four broad themes with sections devoted to phenotypic and genetic variation within and between human populations reproductive physiology and behavior growth and development and human health from evolutionary and ecological perspectives An introductory section provides readers with the historical theoretical and methodological foundations needed to understand the more complex ideas presented later Two hundred discussion questions provide starting points for class debate and assignments to test student understanding Building a New Biocultural Synthesis Alan H. Goodman, Thomas Leland Leatherman, 2010-03-23 Anthropology with its dual emphasis on biology and culture is or should be the discipline most suited to the study of the complex interactions between these aspects of our lives Unfortunately since the early decades of this century biological and cultural anthropology have grown distinct and a holistic vision of anthropology has suffered This book brings culture and biology back together in new and refreshing ways Directly addressing earlier criticisms of biological anthropology Building a New Biocultural Synthesis concerns how culture and political economy affect human biology e g people s nutritional status the spread of disease exposure to pollution and how biological consequences might then have further effects on cultural social and economic systems Contributors to the volume offer case studies on health nutrition and violence among prehistoric and historical peoples in the Americas theoretical chapters on nonracial approaches to human variation and the development of critical humanistic and political ecological approaches in biocultural anthropology and explorations of biological conditions in contemporary societies in relationship to global changes Building a New Biocultural Synthesis will sharpen and enrich the relevance of anthropology for understanding a wide variety of struggles to cope with and combat persistent human suffering It should appeal to all anthropologists and be of interest to sister disciplines such as nutrition and sociology Alan H Goodman is Professor of Anthropology Hampshire College Thomas L Leatherman is Associate Professor of Anthropology University of South Carolina
