Children's Literature in the Classroom Matthew D. Zbaracki, 2023-12-06 Children's literature is a powerful resource that can inspire a young reader's lifetime love of reading but how can you ensure that your literacy teaching uses this rich creative world to its fullest This book gives pre-service primary teachers an in-depth guide to each major type of children's book examining the form structure and approach of each From fairy tales and non-fiction to picture books and digital texts learn what qualities underpin outstanding children's literature and how you can use this to inspire rewarding learning experiences in your classroom Key features Each chapter is full of key book recommendations to help you select excellent age appropriate texts for your learners An international focus across English language publishing covering key books from Australian US and UK authors A special focus on Australian indigenous children's literature Busting popular myths about children's literature to give you a deeper understanding of the form Evaluation criteria for every genre helping you to recognise the qualities of high quality books This is essential reading for anyone training to teach in primary schools and qualified teachers looking to improve their professional knowledge Matthew Zbaracki is State Head of Victoria in the National School of Education at ACU Melbourne Australian Book Review, 2004 Hot Aussie Night Lexxie Couper, 2021-11-23 What's cooking for Christmas A hot serving of insta lust with a side order of fake fianc Life long anxiety isn't going to stop Elisa De Luca from enjoying her sister's Christmas engagement party She's got a process and as long as things don't get too chaotic she'll be okay And then she suddenly finds herself engaged to a hot hot hot Aussie five minutes after meeting him and chaos is the word of the day Super chef Angus Daniels doesn't do relationships but the second he meets Elisa De Luca he's drawn to her Big time When the shy American inexplicably saves him from a sharkish TV producer hellbent on making him the titular star on a bachelor show Angus begins to question everything he thought he wanted A fake engagement requires a fake relationship but it doesn't take long for Elisa and Angus to realise there's nothing fake about what's happening between them But when reality feeds baggage and anxiety nibbles at certainty love at first sight might not be enough for a happy Christmas Or a Happy Ever After full stop A Note from Lexxie Insta love is the name of the game in The De Luca Sisters trilogy That powerful moment that shakes both people to the core and changes everything for them in a single look Buckle up Things are about to get fast and wild and fun Aussie Yarns John McAulay, 2011-08-04 Aussie Yarns some serious some funny and some philosophical Most are about down to earth country folk Some like Rusty and A Farmer's Wife have a lesson in them Others are even a bit romantic for example Blind Love and Best Friends In a number of cases the story is inspired by a poem already written and in other cases one is written specially but in any case all are accompanied by a poem or two and an explanation as to how it all came about. Primarily these yarns were written with an Australian readership in mind, most of whom would understand and appreciate the slang words and phrases used, particularly by unsophisticated bushies. However, I imagine some of the terms may leave non-Australians a bit perplexed. Stick with it and by the time you've read Witness for the Defence, you will have probably worked out what a sheila is, along with all the other words and expressions that are uniquely Australian in origin. Enjoy the adventures of the 110 characters who play some role in these yarns.
