Pas Dorchidees Pour Mib Blandish:

Origins and Legacies of Marcel Duhamel's Série Noire Alistair Charles Rolls, Clara Dominique Sitbon, Marie-Laure Jacqueline Vuaille-Barcan, 2017-12-18 In Origins and Legacies of Marcel Duhamel's Série Noire Alistair Rolls Clara Sitbon and Marie-Laure Vuaille-Barcan counter the myths and received wisdom that are typically associated with this iconic French crime fiction series namely that it was born in Paris on a tide of postwar euphoria that it initially consisted of translations of American hard-boiled classics by the likes of Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler and that the translations were rushed and rather approximate. Instead an alternative vision of Duhamel's translation practice is proposed one based on a French tradition of auto or original translation of ostensibly American crime fiction and one that appropriates the source text in order to create an allegory of the target culture. French and American Noir Alistair Rolls, Deborah Walker, 2009-08-21 A longstanding misconception surrounding the term French noir suggests that the post-war French thriller and film noir were a development of or response to a pre-existing American tradition. This book challenges this misconception examining the complexity of this trans-Atlantic exchange and refocusing debate to include a Franco-French lineage. Raymond Queneau's Dubliners James Patrick Gosling, 2019-09-12 This work is a broad-ranging exploration of two comic, erotic and well-nigh feminist novels written by Raymond Queneau: On est toujours trop bon avec les femmes 1947 and Journal intime 1950. Both are set in Ireland, were initially published by Éditions du Scorpion under the pseudonym Sally Mara and then later published together by Gallimard as Les Œuvres complètes de Sally Mara 1962. The book examines Queneau's life when he wrote these texts, the pervasive Joycean influences, his surreal version of the 1916 Dublin Uprising versus the real event, his remarkably accurate Dublin city and his use of the Irish language. The seven core chapters are explorations of prominent aspects of these works and most involve the solution of puzzles by means of investigations of contexts, contemporary events and a wide variety of sources. In conclusion the book makes a convincing case for the literary and entertainment value of Les Œuvres complètes de Sally Mara as a long-planned and subtly integrated work. Paris and the Fetish Alistair Rolls, 2014-01-05 Freud's 1927 essay on the acquisition of a screen memory or fetish allows the subject to come to terms with the traumatic truth that for him dominates the present moment in Freud's scenario: the truth of mother's sexuality by maintaining alongside and not in place of it a parallel story of the past: the myth of the phallic mother. In this book Freud's theory of the fetish and in particular this way of allowing two opposed and ostensibly mutually exclusive narratives to co-exist is used to provide a number of Parisian crime texts with radical new solutions. The fetishistic world view of Charles Baudelaire's poetics will be shown to provide the template for all overvalued instances of women passing by: notably it will be seen how the famous assault on one of Christian Dior's models as she displayed the New Look for the first time in Montmartre in 1947 depends on a fetish erected in the poem une passante. The same Paris streets allow red herrings to be raised to the status of truth in novels by Fred Vargas, L. O. Malet and Frédéric Cathala. In these texts the discovery of a primal scene allows doubt to be cast over

authorial solutions and new murderers or victims to be found In the case of Jean Paul Sartre's La Nausée the fetishism at work is shown to have harboured a serial killer where no crime was previously considered to have taken place In these analyses fetishism is mapped onto prose poetics intertextuality and deconstruction in order to challenge the way we read text More importantly rereading these texts allows us to see fetishism in a new light as a force for positive creative acts of meaning making

Alistair Rolls is Associate Professor of French Studies at the University of Newcastle Australia He is the author of The Flight of the Angels Intertextuality in Four Novels by Boris Vian Rodopi 1999 and with Deborah Walker of French and American Noir Dark Crossings Palgrave Macmillan 2009

On Translating French Literature and Film Geoffrey T. Harris, 2025-02-10 This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re encoding the meaning of a source text The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure

From Dreams to Despair J.K.L. Scott, 2023-12-18 This book is a study of the novels of Boris Vian the artist writer jazz musician and occasional pornographer Primarily known for his classic novel of doomed young love L'Écume des jours and the pseudonymously written erotic roman noir J'irai cracher sur vos tombes his work displays a bewildering variety of styles genres and narrative voices The purpose of this book is to show that Vian's novels in fact display an overall thematic coherence dramatizing the growth of the individual from childhood to adolescent idealism and ultimate adult disillusion Vian is a highly popular author in France this book seeks to prove that he is also a serious literary artist The wordplay pastiche and parody which fill his texts should not blind the reader to the deeper themes and issues which lie behind them just as the protean character of his style should not be allowed to conceal the single integrated narrative which runs throughout his novels
